Social Science Research on Race

Published for the W.E.B. Du Bois Institute for African and African American Research, Harvard University

Editors

Lawrence D. Bobo, Harvard University, USA

Michael C. Dawson, University of Chicago, USA

Du Bois Review: Social Science Research on Race (DBR) is an innovative periodical that presents and analyzes the best cutting-edge research on race from the social sciences. It provides a forum for discussion and increased understanding of race and society from a range of disciplines, including but not limited to economics, political science, sociology, anthropology, law, communications, public policy, psychology, and history. Each issue of DBR opens with remarks from the editors concerning the three subsequent and substantive sections: STATE OF THE DISCIPLINE, where broad-gauge essays and provocative think-pieces appear; STATE OF THE ART, dedicated to observations and analyses of empirical research; and STATE OF THE DISCOURSE, featuring expansive book reviews, special feature essays, and occasionally debates. Many issues also now include a conversation between Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr. and an eminent scholar on broad areas of research regarding race.

International Review of the Red Cross

Published for the International Committee of the Red Cross

Editor-in-Chief

Vincent Bernard, The International Committee of the Red Cross,

Editor

Mariya Nikolova, The International Committee of the Red Cross,

The International Review of the Red Cross promotes reflection on humanitarian law, policy and action in armed conflict and other situations of collective armed violence. A specialized journal in humanitarian law, it endeavours to promote knowledge, critical analysis and development of the law and to contribute to the prevention of violations of rules protecting fundamental rights and values. The Review offers a forum for discussion about contemporary humanitarian action as well as analysis of the causes and characteristics of conflicts so as to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems they generate. Finally, the Review informs its readership on questions pertaining to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and in particular on the activities and policies of the Red Cross.

Journal of Policy History

Published through the cooperation of the History Department at Saint Louis University and the Institute for Policy History

Editor

Donald T. Critchlow, Saint Louis University, USA

David B. Robertson, University of Missouri, St. Louis, USA

The Journal of Policy History is an interdisciplinary journal concerned with the application of historical perspectives to public policy studies. While seeking to inform scholars interested in policy history, the journal also seeks to inform policy makers through a historical approach to public policy. Its authors, considering public policy primarily in the United States though also in other nations, focus on policy origins and development through historical inquiry, historical analysis of specific policy areas and policy institutions, explorations of continuities and shifts in policy over time, interdisciplinary research into public policy, and comparative historical approaches to the development of public policy.
