Cambridge Quarterly of Healthcare Ethics
Volume 3, Number 2, Spring 1994

CONTENTS

From the Editors 155
Contributors 156

From the Annual Congress of Healthcare Ethics and Ethics Committees
Saint Martin of Tours in a New World of Medical Ethics
RICHARD D. LAMM 159
Commentary on “Saint Martin of Tours in a New World of Medical Ethics”
Healthcare: Reform, Yes; But Not à la Lamm
EDMUND D. PELLEGRINO 168

Special Section: Ethical Decision Making and Persons with Mental Retardation
The Journey of a Child and His Heart: A Decade of Transformation in the Legal, Medical, and Ethical Care of a Child with Down Syndrome
GARY E. GATHMAN 174
Mental Retardation: The Reality Behind the Label
HENRY J. BOURGUIGNON 179
Substituted Judgment, Best Interests, and the Need for Best Respect
SUSAN R. MARTYN 195
Sterilization and a Mentally Handicapped Minor: Providing Consent for One Who Cannot
GABRIELLE M. APPLEBAUM AND JOHN LA PUMA 209
Limiting But Not Abandoning Treatment in Severely Mentally Impaired Patients: A Troubling Issue for Ethics Consultants and Ethics Committees
ERICH H. LOEWY 216
Expanding Opportunities for Ethics Committees: Residential Centers for the Mentally Retarded and Developmentally Disabled
WALTER EDINGER 226

CQ Sources/Bibliography
DAVID A. BUEHLER 233

Articles
Professional Organizations and Healthcare Industry Support: Ethical Conflict?
THOMAS K. HAZLET AND SEAN D. SULLIVAN 236

Contents continued
Contents continued

Commentary on “Professional Organizations and Healthcare Industry Support: Ethical Conflict?”
  KLAUS M. LEISINGER 244
  LAURA GARDNER 247
  WILLIAM E. FASSETT 253
  JON R. MAY 255

The Problem of Futility: III. The Importance of Physician–Patient Communication and a Suggested Guide through the Minefield
  DOROTHY RASINSKI GREGORY AND MIRIAM PIVEN COTLER 257

Departments and Columns

Ethics Committees at Work
Is Dying Better than Dialysis for a Woman with Down Syndrome? 270
Commentary on “Is Dying Better than Dialysis for a Woman with Down Syndrome?”
  ROBERT L. SCHWARTZ 271
  MARCY LUETKE 274
  What Actually Happened? 275

CQ Interview
Rudolf S. Goon on Healthcare Reforms and Human Rights in Post-Soviet Russia
  DANA SWARTZBERG AND PAVEL TICHTCHENKO 277

Philosopher’s Corner
How Abstract Is My Thinking as an Ethicist in Clinical Settings?
  EDMUND L. ERDE 281

Bioethics Education
Why Doctors Hate Medical Ethics
  MYLES N. SHEEHAN 289

Teaching Medical Ethics: Is It a Waste of Time?
  ERICH H. LOEWY 296

Health Policy Watch
Bioethics and the Body Politic
  JOSEPH C. d’ORONZIO 300

Bioethics Common Market
  MAGGIE HALL 302

CQ Review
NANCY S. JECKER
Life’s Dominion: An Argument About Abortion, Euthanasia, and Individual Freedom by Ronald Dworkin
Reviewed by COURTNEY S. CAMPBELL 303

Abstracts of Note: The Bioethics Literature
  KENNETH V. ISERSON 307

Preparation of Manuscripts: A Note to Contributors 310