dissent in the ussr

Politics, Ideology, and People
edited by Rudolf L. Tőkés
"This will immediately become the standard book on Soviet dissent. It is by far the best that has yet appeared, and will be required reading for all concerned with Soviet politics, and indeed international relations in general." — William E. Griffith, Massachusetts Institute of Technology $15.00

the soviet image of utopia

Jerome M. Gilison
Piecing together the fragmentary descriptions of the future communist society given by the current generation of Soviet writers and thinkers, Gilison confronts the much-debated question of the connection between the theory and the practice of communism. $9.00

The Positive Hero in Russian Literature

Rufus W. Mathewson, Jr.

Second Edition. The positive hero is defined by the Soviets as one who "sets an example for the reader's behavior." As early as 1860, the merits of this ideal model were a central issue in the war between the literary imagination and ideological criticism. In this expanded version of a widely acclaimed work, new chapters on Pasternak, Solzhenitsyn, and Sinyavsky demonstrate how the battle, suppressed during the Stalin years, has been renewed with dramatic force. $14.95

GOGOL FROM THE TWENTIETH CENTURY Eleven Essays

Edited by
ROBERT A. MAGUIRE

In this anthology, Robert A. Maguire offers to English-speaking readers a selection of the impressive critical achievement that the writings of Gogol have stimulated. Each of the eleven essays is at once a fresh contribution to the study of Gogol and an example of one major school of criticism cultivated in contemporary Russia. $17.50

THE POETIC WORLD OF BORIS PASTERNAK OLGA RAEVSKY HUGHES

Putting aside the dramatic political struggles and continued success of Dr. Zhivago, Professor Hughes chooses instead to focus on Pasternak's aesthetics—to explore the ways in which his views of art and the artist were applied in his writings. Princeton Essays in Literature. $9.00
