of the Major
Asian Traditions

June 2–July 11, 1986

Summer Workshop
on Major Topics
in Asian Civilizations

June 23–July 18, 1986

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY
New York City

Funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

The Purpose

The institute and workshop are designed to provide faculty development for the enrichment of teaching. The purpose of the workshop and institute is to deepen understanding of Asian texts, to broaden knowledge of Asian culture and history, and to increase awareness of how Asian content speaks to central issues and ideas in undergraduate education.

The Faculty

A Columbia faculty team, chaired by Wm. Theodore deBary, Ainslie T. Embree, and Carol Gluck, will lead the discussion in the institute and workshop.

The Participants

Participants are sought primarily from institutions that are (1) introducing Asian content into a required core curriculum; (2) developing general education survey courses on the Asian traditions; (3) trying to make their extant Asian studies programs more accessible to a broader spectrum of students; or (4) seeking ways to introduce Asian content into general education courses without a faculty cohort trained in Asian studies.

The Middle East Studies Association of North America, Inc. (MESA) was organized in 1966 by a group of American and Canadian scholars on the Middle East to

- promote high standards of scholarship and instruction in this area;
- facilitate communication among scholars through meetings and publications; and
- foster cooperation among persons and organizations concerned with the scholarly study of the Middle East.

MESA focuses on the study of the Middle East since the rise of Islam, principally from the viewpoint of the humanities and the social sciences. Its membership is international.

Persons of scholarly training and/or achievement in Middle East studies are eligible to become Full Members. Other categories of membership are Associate, Student, and Institutional. Each membership is on a calendar-year basis. Membership includes subscriptions to the International Journal of Middle East Studies, the MESA Bulletin, and the MESA Newsletter. Application forms may be obtained from the MESA Secretariat, Department of Oriental Studies, University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona 85721, (602) 621-5850.

MESA is a nonprofit corporation with tax-exempt status. Contributions to the Association are deductible under both U.S. Federal and British income tax regulations.
