Call for papers for a Special Issue:

Genetics and Animal Welfare

(Guest Editors: Professor L F M Van Zutphen, Utrecht University,
The Netherlands
Professor P G C Bedford, The Royal Veterinary College, UK)

This Special Issue will explore the welfare implications of genetic change in farm, companion, laboratory, zoo and wild animals –from traditional breeding practices through to the most modern aspects of genetic engineering, while also considering the effects/amelioration of crashes in wild populations. Animal Welfare* invites researchers and practitioners to contribute to this themed issue by submitting relevant reviews or original research papers (up to 8000 words), short/technical contributions (less than 2000 words), or topical letters to:

The Editor-in-Chief, UFAW, The Old School, Brewhouse Hill, Wheathampstead, Herts AL4 8AN, UK (Tel:+44 (0)1582831818; Fax +44 (0)1582 831414)

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS: 29 OCTOBER 1998

Brief Instructions for Authors can be found on the back page of Animal Welfare, or on our web-site at: <http://www.ufaw3.dircon.co.uk>

Alternatively please contact the Universities Federation for Animal Welfare to request a back issue or detailed Instructions for Authors leaflet.

The journal will not include any papers based on work which causes unnecessary pain, distress, suffering or lasting harm.

Animal Welfare has established itself as an objective international forum for publication of peer-reviewed papers on all aspects of laboratory, farm, wild, zoo and companion animal welfare. The journal is covered by the Science Citation Index®, Current Contents®/Agriculture, Biology and Environmental Sciences, SciSearch®, Zoological Record and numerous abstracting services.

The Changing Roles of Animals in Society

Prague 10-12 September 1998

The 8th International Conference on Human-Animal Interactions will be held at the Hilton Atrium Hotel in Prague from September 10 to 12, 1998. The theme of this 8th edition is The Changing Roles of Animals in Society. This is the first conference in this field to be held in Eastern Europe.

This 8th conference will be of major interest to researchers, practitioners in the field of relationships with animals and the role they play in our lives – looking at the past, the present and the future – especially barriers and challenges to future change.

The Call for Papers has been published and contributed papers/posters on original, completed work in three categories are expected: research, programmes/applications, and critical review.

SOCIETY &amp; ANIMALS	Social Scientific Studies of the Human Experience of Other Animals
	ISSN 1063-1119

Society and Animals publishes studies which describe and analyse our experience of nonhuman animals. The goal of the journal is to stimulate and support an emerging content area within the social sciences and humanities, consisting of studies of the ways in which nonhuman animals figure in our lives. Findings regarding nonhuman animal experience and behaviour are included only secondarily to that end.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS – 1998

1. ANIMAL WELFARE considers: Original articles, ie first reports of the author's own work. Review articles based largely on other scientists' work. Short communications of less than 2000 words. These may be original, interpretative or review papers; factual accounts or field workers' practical experiences in dealing with welfare problems; constructive critiques of other papers, etc. Technical contributions from animal keepers, scientists, students, technicians etc, reporting practical methods of improving animal welfare. Letters, on topical issues or material previously published in the journal.

Animal Welfare will not include papers based on work which involves unnecessary pain, distress, suffering or lasting harm.

2. Manuscripts should be in English, typewritten, double spaced (with lines numbered) on single-sided A4, with generous margins and pages numbered consecutively. Four copies should preferably be submitted to the relevant Section Editor or to the Editor-in-Chief. A computer disk of any IBM or Apple Macintosh compatible package should be submitted with the final version of the manuscript. Two, lettered originals (laser printouts) of each figure, accompanied by a separate sheet of legends, must be submitted with the final version. Articles will be scrutinized by a minimum of two referees before being accepted or rejected.
3. Contents of articles. The title page should give the full title of the paper, the name(s) and address(es) of the author(s) and a short running head title. The full postal address, telephone and facsimile numbers of the correspondent should be given. Include an e-mail address, if possible.
4. Text should include an abstract of not more than 250 words plus keywords; an introduction; and as appropriate, sections on methods, results, discussion, conclusion, acknowledgements and references. Animal welfare implications of the paper should be set out at the end of the text as a subdivision of the discussion or conclusion.
5. Tables and figures should all be on separate sheets; and a place marked for them in the text. All lettering on figures should be in Helvetica or a similar font. Detailed instructions on presentation of illustrations are available. Black and white photographs are welcomed.
6. Layout. The general style of articles should follow those in this issue in respect of headings, paragraphs, use of italics, quotation marks etc.
7. Numbers one to nine should be written in words unless they precede units of measurement. Numbers 10 and above should be written as numerals except at the beginning of a sentence. The 24 hour clock should be used for times of day, eg 1400h and if relevant, corrected to standard local time. Measurements should comply with the abbreviations in the International System of Units. Locations should be given as latitude and longitude. Per cent should be used in the main text, except when in parentheses or in tables when % should be used.
8. References cited in the text should be carefully checked with those in the reference list and vice versa, particularly to ensure that the spelling of names and the dates match. In the text, references should be cited with the minimum of punctuation, for example:
  - '... carried out by Smith and Jones (1985) ...';
  - '... (Smith & Jones 1985) ...' ie use ampersand when reference is in parentheses;
  - '... (Smith 1985; Jones 1986)...' ie two or more references should be in chronological order;
  - '... (Smith et al 1985)...' ie use for three or more authors;
  - '... (Smith 1986a,b; 1988)...' ie by same author in the same and in a subsequent year.

Citations of personal communications and unpublished data should be avoided if possible, but where used should be dated.

References should be listed at the end of the text in alphabetical and chronological order of authors with the minimum of punctuation. Book and journal titles (including published reference proceedings) should be quoted in full and italicized or underlined to indicate italics. For example:

Boudreau P L and Tsuchitani C 1973 Sensory Neurophysiology. Van Nostrand Reinhold: New York, USA
Eaton P 1987 Hygiene in the animal house. In: Poole T B (ed) The UFAW Handbook on the Care and Management of Laboratory Animals, 6th edition pp 144-158. Longman Scientific & Technical: Harlow, UK
Ross C 1988 The intrinsic rate of natural increase and reproductive effort in primates. Journal of Zoology 214: 199-219

9. Reprints. The author will be supplied with 50 free reprints. Further copies may be ordered at a cost.
10. Copyright. The copyright of each paper published becomes the property of UFAW and permission must be sought to reproduce any part or whole of the paper. However, UFAW will not put undue limitations on the author to use the material in other works.

Comprehensive Instructions for Authors are available from the Editorial Assistant at UFAW
