The International Law Reports

online

It's a small world now.

For the first time ever the full archive of the International Law Reports is available in a fully searchable form online via the award-winning Justis platform. Features include:

- ▶ Cases in English from international and national courts worldwide
- ▶ Full coverage from 1919 to the most current rulings
- ▶ Full cross-linking and cross-referencing
- ▶ Advanced search capabilities

Covering all significant cases of public international law, the collection spans from the postwar Treaty of Versailles era to a cyberspace-influenced 21st century, featuring an enormously diverse range of topics along the way, including:

- ▶ International boundaries
- ▶ Numerous treaties between states
- ▶ Refugee law
- ▶ Terrorism
- ▶ State and diplomatic immunity
- ▶ War

The International Law Reports Online is a must for all practitioners and academics specialising in international law and is the only database in the world devoted to the regular and systematic reporting of decisions on points of international law from every relevant jurisdiction - international and national.

Journal of Human Rights and the Environment

Co-Editors in Chief:

Anna Grear and Karen Morrow

This new international journal provides a strategic academic forum in which an extended interdisciplinary and multi-layered conversation can take place concerning the challenges located at the interface of these two centrally important fields. The quality of the editorial board, which is made up of leading scholars with outstanding international reputations, ensures that this journal will make a unique contribution to an informed understanding of the relationship between human rights and the environment.
