PRIZE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Conference Group for Central European History awards every two years a prize of $250 to the North American scholar who, in the opinion of a prize awards committee, has written the best article dealing with the topic of Central European history. The article must have been published in any scholarly journal in the United States, Canada, or abroad during the two-year period preceding the awarding of the prize.

The prize will be awarded at the business meeting of the Conference Group in December 1976. The Awards Committee consists of Georg G. Iggers, chairman (Department of History, State University of New York at Buffalo, Buffalo, New York 14214), Arnold H. Price (6693 Barnaby Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20015), and Peter F. Sugar (Department of History, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington 98195). The committee will consider articles published since October 15, 1974. Articles may be submitted by their authors, the editors of journals in which they have been published, or anyone else who wishes to recommend them for the prize. One copy of each article should be sent directly before October 15, 1976, to each member of the committee.
