Editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editor, Journal of British Studies, Emory University, 1463 S. Oxford Rd., Atlanta, Ga. 30322. Prospective authors should submit two good-quality copies of the manuscripts to the Editor. Manuscripts not accompanied by return postage will not be returned. All unsolicited manuscripts must be prepared by the author for blind review; that is, all indications of the author’s name and institutional affiliation must be removed from the text, header, footer, and notes prior to submission. Articles should conform to The Chicago Manual of Style (14th ed.). The entire text of manuscript, including quotations and endnotes, must be typed double-spaced with generous margins. Do not justify the right margin. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively and appear at the end of the text. Further guidelines for submissions may be obtained on request from the assistant editor at the above address, or by e-mail directed to jbs@emory.edu.

Copying beyond Fair Use: The code on the first page of an article in this journal indicates the copyright owner’s consent that copies of the article may be made beyond those permitted by Sections 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law provided that copies are made only for personal or internal use or for the personal or internal use of specific clients and provided that the copier pay the stated per-copy fee through the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC), 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923. To request permission for other kinds of copying, such as copying for general distribution, for advertising or promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale, kindly write to Permissions Department, The University of Chicago Press, 5801 S.
