

THE ECCLESIASTICAL LAW SOCIETYTHE LONDON MEETINGS

The London Meetings started up in November 1992 to allow members to meet on an informal but regular basis and to enable an exploration of a varied range of smaller topics around the subject of Canon Law.

The meetings take place on the second Wednesday of every month, and are held at 5.30pm in BRIEFS, Lincoln's Inn (Below 7, Stone Buildings). The evenings have proved very enjoyable, and a loyal band of regulars has been building up.

The format of the evening is usually a short talk on the evening's topic, followed by some time for questions and discussion. Members then have the opportunity of retiring to the bar to continue the discussion in a more informal manner. The talk and questions are usually concluded by about 7.00pm, but the rest of the evening continues for as long as members wish to stay.

The topics for the next three meetings are as follows:

Wednesday 9th March 1994

"The Non-Juring Consecrations" – Roger Turner, Esq., M.A., B.D., M.Th.,
Barrister-at-Law

Wednesday 11th May 1994

"Nullity of Marriage" – The Worshipful June Rodgers,
Chancellor of Gloucester

Wednesday 13th July 1994

To be announced – The Worshipful Robert Gray, O.C.
Chancellor of Southwark

(Please make a note of these dates, as members will no longer receive monthly reminders of the meetings).

All members are most welcome. Feel free to encourage friends and colleagues to attend these meetings – potential members are also always welcome.

I do hope to see you there.

PAUL BARBER
