

1962-1967
 FIVE YEARS THAT CLOSED
 THE REFERENCE GAP
 IN CONTEMPORARY AUTHORS

Contemporary Authors . . . Providing librarians and researchers with authentic, readable, and personal accounts of the lives and work of the people who are writing the books your patrons read.

Gale recently published CONTEMPORARY AUTHORS, Volumes 1-4, First Revision, thereby completing a five-year cycle of service for one of the most widely acclaimed new reference works published in this century.

Since CA's inclusion in both the major national lists of best reference books of 1962, reviewers for every major periodical published for librarians have unanimously recommended CA for acquisition by high school, college, and public libraries. Choice additionally selected it for their basic list of books that should be in every 'Opening Day' collection for new high school, junior college, and college libraries. CA is cited among the titles recommended in the Standard Catalog for Public Libraries, and the new Random House Dictionary of the English Language has included CONTEMPORARY AUTHORS in its Selected Bibliography of Major Reference Works.

Research has revealed that some 75% of the listings in CONTEMPORARY AUTHORS are not to be found in any other commonly-used biographical references and that, when authors are also listed elsewhere, CA sketches are usually superior in both detail and content. Individual librarians from coast to coast report that CA is now the most consulted reference title on their shelves; that its existence has freed them from the innumerable hours formerly spent in fruitless, or nearly fruitless, searches in obscure sources that might yield bio-bibliographical data about a living writer. Now, with CONTEMPORARY AUTHORS at hand, they can be reasonably certain that up-to-the-minute details on most authors are no farther away than the CA shelf.

NEWER WRITERS ARE WELL REPRESENTED

Since 1962, 19,000 unduplicated sketches, with content ranging from one hundred to several thousand words, have been included in the twenty volumes of CA published to date—five times as many sketches on living writers as any similar work, with facts and figures generally ten years or so in advance of most other sources. This coverage follows a basic CA concept that not only the established writer, but also the new writer (the one for whom it is most difficult to find meaningful biographical material)—first novelists, new juvenile and young adult authors, new textbook writers, new essayists, poets, biographers, historians—should be included as soon as possible after he becomes eligible by reason of a current publication. Naturally, the editorial emphasis is on first-hand material secured directly from the authors themselves.

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES OF Contemporary Authors

- CA offers a breadth of coverage of major, minor, and unranked authors unmatched by any other source.
- CA covers nearly 2,000 writers of recently published books in each of its two volumes every year—close to 4,000 in all.
- CA contains more current authors of interest to young readers than all the other common sources combined.
- Each entry includes basic personal, educational, and career history data, plus these distinctive features: Complete bibliographies of the original publication of each author's books, regardless of the number of titles. Many author bibliographies in CA mention fifty, one hundred, or more titles—one lists 435. Work in Progress is reported, with titles and probable publishers and projected completion dates. Sidelight information which gives special insight into their work, character, attitudes, and opinions is provided by many authors.
- The annual indexes are cumulative from the first volume.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICES

ALL VOLUMES PUBLISHED TO DATE

(Volumes 1-20, including 1967 revision of 1962-63 volumes) $104.50

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION—TWO VOLUMES $25.00

TEST Contemporary Authors WITHOUT COST OR OBLIGATION

ORDER TODAY—USE FOR THIRTY DAYS

EITHER RETAIN AND REMIT PAYMENT OR RETURN AND CHARGE WILL BE CANCELLED

Free Descriptive brochure available upon request

GALE RESEARCH COMPANY

Book Tower

Detroit, Michigan 48226

New in the Gotham Library

THOMAS WOLFE

THREE DECADES OF CRITICISM

Edited by Leslie A. Field

So much has been written about Wolfe the man that many critics have overlooked the small but significant body of solid criticism that has emerged from 1935 to 1965. This entire collection is devoted to such criticism. Its twenty-three essays by major critics, writers, and scholars (including Oscar Cargill, Louis D. Rubin, Jr., Robert Penn Warren, Bernard De Voto, and Maxwell E. Perkins) contain material both laudatory and hostile, and it will be exceedingly useful to any reader wanting to put aside the stereotype and gain a true understanding of Wolfe the writer. As a sidelight of some interest, it reflects the great change in general critical attitudes over the last three decades.

$2.45 paper/$8.00 cloth.

THE PRINCE OF POETS

ESSAYS ON EDMUND SPENSER

Edited by John R. Elliott, Jr.

This volume presents both a documentary survey of Spenser's poetic reputation and an introduction to his poetry for the modern reader. The earlier portion is devoted to landmarks of Spenser criticism and scholarship. Later parts deal with modern scholarly writings on Spenser with sections devoted to the poetic values of his age. The longest section is devoted to The Faerie Queene. Carefully chosen for their direct relevance to the questions that modern readers are likely to ask when reading Spenser, the majority of the essays seek to explain the differences between Spenser's poetry and modern poetry by relating Spenser's work to Renaissance literary culture.

$2.45 paper/$8.00 cloth.

JOYCE CARY

THE DEVELOPING STYLE

By Jack Wolkenfeld

This critical study of Cary's work considers the developing relationship between his matter and his manner. It especially emphasizes his growth as artist and thinker. Looking closely at the language and structure of Cary's books, the author examines all the novels—the African ones, the historical ones, and the two trilogies. He also analyzes Cary's interpretations of history, sociology, and politics as they are gathered from the actions and works of his colorful characters.

$2.25 paper/$6.95 cloth.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS

Washington Square

New York 10003

