International Review of Social History

Published for the Internationaal Instituut voor
Sociale Geschiedenis

Editor

Aad Blok, *Internationaal Instituut voor Sociale Geschiedenis,
The Netherlands*

International Review of Social History is one of the leading journals in its field. Truly global in its scope, it focuses on research in social and labour history from a comparative and transnational perspective, both in the modern and in the early modern period, and across periods. The journal combines quality, depth and originality of its articles with an open eye for theoretical innovation and new insights and methods from within its field and from contiguous disciplines. Besides research articles, it features surveys of new themes and subject fields, a suggestions and debates section, review essays and book reviews. It is esteemed for its annotated bibliography of social history titles, and also publishes an annual supplement of specially commissioned essays on a current theme. The 2011 special issue will examine 'The Joy and Pain of Work: Global Attitudes and Valuations, 1500-1650'.

Modern Intellectual History

Editors

Charles Capper, Charles Capper

Duncan Kelly, University of Cambridge, UK

Anthony J. LaVopa, North Carolina State University, USA

Samuel Moyn, Columbia University, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.

Comparative Studies in Society and History

Published for the Society for Comparative Study of Society and History

Editor

Andrew Shryock, University of Michigan, USA

Comparative Studies in Society and History is an international forum for new research and interpretation concerning problems of recurrent patterning and change in human societies through time and the contemporary world. CSSH sets up a working alliance among specialists in all branches of the social sciences and humanities as a way of bringing together multidisciplinary research, cultural studies, and theory, especially in anthropology, history, political science, and sociology. Review articles and discussion bring readers in touch with current findings and issues.

ILWCH 82: Fortieth Anniversary Issue

ILWCH 83: Strikes and Social Conflicts

DIRECTIONS FOR ILWCH CONTRIBUTORS: Unsolicited proposals for articles and review essays are welcome, but must adhere to the following guidelines. Prospective authors should send a letter and 500-word abstract of the work they wish to submit to the journal. The editors are particularly interested in proposals with resonance beyond strictly national historiographies. Submissions should clearly explain the article's research question and argument, note the types of sources the author intends to use, and demonstrate the ways that the article will reflect the journal's commitment to publishing work across geographic regions and historical time periods. (Essays in themselves do not need to be "transnational.") Editors will decide quickly whether they wish to review a full manuscript; authors will then be sent style and submission guidelines. Send correspondence to Managing Editor, ILWCH, Rutgers University, 50 Labor Center Way, New Brunswick, NJ 08901, USA, or via email: ilwch@work.rutgers.edu
