Area Studies
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge has a vibrant programme of books and journals spanning all geographical areas of the world.

We publish prestigious book series and stand-alone titles that analyse regions through a variety of disciplines in both the humanities and social sciences, ranging from politics, economics and history through to anthropology and religion.

Our multi- and interdisciplinary journals regularly achieve high Impact Factors and lead their respective fields.

Contributors will submit 1 copy of manuscript to the editor in Word format – this should include all artwork. Figure files should be named EDBvolXissueYSmith1.eps where the number is a range (without using p. and pp.). Final figures can be supplied as .eps or .tif files, or .pdf files if the content does not contain a lot of tonal material. Names should use the convention EDBvolXissueYSmith1.eps where the number is a range (without using p. and pp.). Full references are to be grouped together at the end of the paper in numerical order. Please ensure the details of all references are complete. If in doubt please include all available information.

References should take the following form:

Journals:
1. Author’s surname followed by initials (list all names rather than using et al.), date in parentheses, title of article in Roman, published journals in italics, volume number in bold, page range (without using p. and pp.).

Books:
2. Author’s surname followed by initials (list all names rather than using et al.), date in parentheses, published work in italics, where appropriate editors’ names in Roman, location, publisher in parentheses, page range (using p. and pp.).

Examples:

For many articles submitted to the publication, it may be more useful to provide a short bibliography under heading ‘Further Reading.’ There is no set footnote style. Footnotes will be placed in the reference list.

Proofs
Authors proofs will be e-mailed as pdf files. Authors may return a marked hard copy or pdf scans of marked pages. Typographical or factual errors may only be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors. Corrected proofs should be returned to the Publisher within 48 hours of receipt.

Offprints
Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.
