Introducing the incoming Editor-in-Chief of Management and Organization Review

ARIE Y. LEWIN

Arie Y. Lewin is Professor of Strategy and International Business at Duke University, Fuqua School of Business and is Director of the Center for International Business Education and Research (CIBER). He is elected Fellow of the Academy of International Business and The Organization Management and Theory division of the Academy of Management awarded Professor Lewin the first Joanne Martin Trailblazer Award at the 2008 Annual Meeting. Professor Lewin is Visiting Research Professor at IESE (2005–2008) and RSM Erasmus University (1998–) where he is also ERIM Senior Fellow. He was Editor-in-Chief (2002–2007) of Journal of International Business Studies (JIBS); founding Editor-in-Chief of Organization Science (1989–1998) and the convener of the acclaimed Organization Science Winter Conference (1994–). Prior to that, he was the Departmental Editor (1974–1987) for Organization Analysis, Performance and Design of Management Science. His research interests center on strategic renewal of organizations encompassing studies of adaptation and selection as co-evolutionary systems, emergence of new organizational forms and adaptive capabilities that distinguish between innovating and imitating organizations. He is the lead Principal Investigator for the multiyear international Offshoring Research Network (ORN) project which focuses on companies in transition to globalizing their organizations, business functions, processes and services by tracking firm strategies, experiences and future plans related to global delivery of all business functions and administrative and technical work. Current research focuses on the globalization of innovation. He has been a member of the Advisory Board of Management and Organization Review since its founding in 2004. For further details on Professor Lewin's scholarship, awards, distinctions, and extraordinary service to the field, please visit his website: http://www.fuqua.duke.edu/faculty_research/faculty_directory/lewin/. Professor Lewin will assume his duties in September 2013, with a full transition to Editor-in-Chief in January 2014.
