In 1820, twenty-five impoverished craftsmen assembled in an obscure stable in Cato Street, London, with a plan to massacre the whole British cabinet at its monthly dinner. By attending to the ‘real lives’ and habitats of the men, women, and children involved, Gatrell throws fresh light on the troubled and tragic world of Regency Britain, and on one of the most compelling and poignant episodes in British history.

“Erudite, engaging and brilliantly wide-ranging, Vic Gatrell's Conspiracy on Cato Street is peppered with revealing detail and is compulsively readable. This is historical scholarship at its very finest.”

Emma Griffin, author of Bread Winner: An Intimate History of the Victorian Economy.

AFTER THE VIRUS

Lessons from the Past for a Better Future

Hilary Cooper and Simon Szreter | Paperback | c. £12.99 / c. $15.99

After the Virus is a provocative manifesto for change post-COVID-19. Shining a light on the deep fractures in our society, Hilary Cooper and Simon Szreter reveal why the UK was unable to respond effectively to the pandemic and what we can learn from our own history to forge a fairer, more resilient future.

“It should be in the hands of everyone in the country, particularly in Parliament, who cares about, and has responsibility for, our future.”

Sir David King, former UK Chief Scientific Adviser and Climate Envoy, Chair of Independent SAGE

“What lessons does the past hold for shaping a better post-pandemic future? This book, with its powerful account of the intolerable inequalities of the present, argues for a revival of the moral foundations of the successful social contracts of earlier periods of British history.”

Diane Coyle, author of Markets, State and People: Economics for Public Policy

“What lessons does the past hold for shaping a better post-pandemic future? This book, with its powerful account of the intolerable inequalities of the present, argues for a revival of the moral foundations of the successful social contracts of earlier periods of British history.”

Diane Coyle, author of Markets, State and People: Economics for Public Policy

“Impressive analysis of how 40 years of neoliberalism severely increased inequalities and the impact of the pandemic, and how a secure, mutually supportive society with a strong economy can be restored. Let’s hope our government finds it inspiring and acts accordingly.”

Pat Thane, author of Divided Kingdom: A History of Britain, 1900 to the Present

A sweeping six-continent, six-millennia tour of the world’s cities, culminating in the last 250 years, when we vastly accelerated our planetary realms of action, habitat, and impact, courting dangerous new consequences and opening prospects for new hope.

“Majestic in scale, full of fascinating detail about stones, bricks and systems of segregation”
Jeremy Adelman, author of Worldly Philosopher: the Odyssey of Albert O. Hirschman

“History is merely prelude to the future: on a planet of cities, our survival depends on seizing some of the clues this book contains”
Bill McKibben, author of Falter: Has the Human Game Begun to Play Itself Out

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Founded in 1958, The Historical Journal publishes on all aspects of history since 1500, providing a forum for younger scholars making a distinguished debut as well as publishing the work of historians with an international reputation. The journal publishes original research in full-length articles and shorter communications and major surveys of the field in historiographical reviews and review articles. Contributions are aimed both at specialists and non-specialists.

Submissions should be made online at http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/hj.

Please contact the part-time office at hj@hist.cam.ac.uk if you have any questions about the procedure, or wish to make a submission by another means.

Detailed instructions concerning submission and style, which must be consulted before a manuscript is submitted, are available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/historical-journal/information/instructions-contributors

We aim to make a decision on submissions within three months and to publish the final version of an accepted article within six months of receipt.

Books for review should be sent to: The Editors, The Historical Journal, Faculty of History, West Road, Cambridge CB3 9EF.
