Instructions for contributors

Editorial policy
Each issue of European Review includes a wide range of articles, original research, and occasional special issues of immediate interest to an intellectual readership worldwide. The journal aims to stimulate and develop thought and conversation with contributions from established writers in academic, professional and public life. European Review continues to be a stimulating forum for the exchange of ideas and information.

Submissions
Interested authors should first consult the Editor about their plans.

Submissions should be sent to the Editor, Professor Theo D’haen, theo.dhaen@arts.kuleuven.be. The author’s full postal address, as well as e-mail address, telephone, and fax numbers where available, should also appear on a front sheet in the file. Submissions should be in Word.

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.

Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to the Academia Europaea.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in the manuscript.

Before you submit your typescript, please check it carefully for factual accuracy and stylistic consistency, as correction at a later stage is expensive and can delay progress. Special care should be taken in checking quotations and bibliographical references for accuracy, especially spelling, accents, page and line numbers.

Manuscript preparation

Contributors should submit a copy of manuscript to the editor in Word format – this should include all artwork. Files should be named ERWsmith.doc or ERWsmith.pdf. Final manuscripts should be submitted in the same way, the name should be changed to ERWsmith.doc or pdf. Final figures can be submitted as eps or tif files, or jpeg files if the content does not contain a lot of tonal material. Names should use the convention ERWxx.png etc.

The publisher reserves the rights to typeset material by conventional means if an author’s files prove unsatisfactory.

Layout of manuscript

The title should be brief. It should appear on a separate sheet, with the author’s name typed on the line below the title. The paper should be divided into sections and, if necessary, subsections. Authors should submit a brief autobiography of 75–100 words along with the paper.

Mathematical symbols may be hand-written or typed. Greek letters and unusual symbols should be identified separately in the margin. Distinctions should be made between letter o and zero, between letter I and number 1 and between O and zero.

Footnotes are not acceptable; endnotes should be substituted in the language of the text.

References

DOIs for references are listed in the support of scientific research. European Review, 5, pp. 197–206.

For many articles submitted to the publication, it may be more useful to provide a short bibliography under heading ‘Further Reading’. There is no footnote style. Footnotes will be placed in the reference list.

Proofs
Author proofs will be e-mailed as pdf files. Authors may request a marked hard copy or pdf scans of marked pages.

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to correct authors for correction of non-typographical errors. Corrected proofs should be returned to the Publisher within 48 hours of receipt.

Submission
Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.
