International Journal of Asian Studies
Published in association with the Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia, University of Tokyo

Editor-in-Chief
Takeshi Hamashita, Ryukoku University, Kyoto, Japan
Managing Editors
Robert Chard, University of Tokyo, Japan
Akinobu Kuroda, University of Tokyo, Japan

The International Journal of Asian Studies (IJAS) is an interdisciplinary, English-language forum for research in the social sciences and humanities. IJAS examines Asia on a regional basis, emphasizing patterns and tendencies that go beyond the borders of individual countries. While the journal covers all regions of Asia, the primary focus is on eastern Asia, that is, Korea, China, Taiwan, Vietnam and Japan. As well as encouraging contributions from western scholars, IJAS focuses attention on the work of Asian scholars, in order to encourage multi-directional communication across the international Asian studies community. IJAS includes both themed and general issues.

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era’s intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.
GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies (BSOAS) is an international journal publishing research and reviews in the arts, humanities, law and social sciences relating to Africa and Asia. It has been a platform for new ideas and discoveries since 1917. It publishes material by scholars from all over the world and its Editorial Board is advised by specialists from many countries. Authors are encouraged to situate their articles within the broader context of the field of studies and to write in such a way that they be understood by interested non-specialists. BSOAS welcomes submissions on the history, religions, languages, laws, artistic cultures, and related fields pertaining to the societies and countries of Asia and Africa.

Article submission

Articles for consideration should be sent to: The Editorial Office, Bulletin of SOAS, SOAS, Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London WC1H 0XG or emailed to: bulletin@soas.ac.uk

Submission of an article implies that it has not previously been published and has not been accepted for publication elsewhere. The maximum length for a paper is normally 12,000 words including notes and bibliography; The Bulletin also publishes shorter communications of around 2,500 words. Articles should be sent as .pdf email attachments to: bulletin@soas.ac.uk. Please include an abstract of not more than 150 words. Alternatively authors may send, in duplicate, double-spaced hard copy (including footnotes, which should be given separately at the end).

Spelling is British English. On acceptance of articles authors are required to supply an MS Word version of their paper.

References. The preferred style of reference is citation by author and date, e.g. Robinson (2000: 80) including a complete reference list giving full bibliographical details as follows:

A clear system of abbreviations or other critical apparatus should be used for archival and manuscript sources.

The following system of references will also be accepted: a first footnote citation giving full bibliographical data, e.g. M. Boyce, Zoroastrianism: Its Antiquity and Constant Vigour (Columbia Lectures on Iranian Studies, 7, Costa Mesa: Mazda, 1992), 187. Thereafter by short title; op. cit. should be avoided and ibid. used only to refer to the reference immediately preceding.

Titles of books and journals are italicized with initial capitals. Citation by volume and part is in the following form: BSOAS 60/1, 1997, 231–9. Titles of articles are roman within double quotation marks.

Illustrations and scripts. Line drawings, graphs, etc., should be supplied as good quality originals for scanning, or electronically. Authors are responsible for clearing copyright permissions and providing the acknowledgement line. Photos and non-roman scripts, including Chinese and Japanese characters, will only be accepted where they are essential to the text. Scripts and characters should be provided electronically, in a Unicode-compatible font for electronic typesetting; in case of difficulty please contact the editorial office in the first instance.

Transliteration. Diacritical marks must be given in full and consistently on all transliterated text (though note that where words have become Anglicized this does not apply). More detailed guidelines on the romanization of various language groups are available from the editorial office.

Further guidelines on the production of articles are sent out on acceptance for publication.

Proofs

First proofs of articles and reviews are sent to authors and should be returned by the deadline given. Corrections should be limited to factual and typographical errors. Proofs are sent in the form of a .pdf attachment to an email message.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright to the School of Oriental and African Studies. This ensures that requests from third parties to reproduce articles are handled efficiently and consistently and will also allow the article to be as widely disseminated as possible. In assigning copyright authors may use their own material in other publications provided that the journal is acknowledged as the original place of publication.

Offprints

Authors will receive 25 offprints of their article and will have the opportunity to order further copies on the order form sent out with proofs.
