CONTENTS

Figures and Tables vii

Contributors ix

Introduction: Uncovering Married Women 1

* Cordelia Beattie and Matthew Frank Stevens

1. Inheritance, Property and Marriage in Medieval Norway 11

* Lars Ivar Hansen

2. Spousal Disputes, the Marital Property System, and the Law in Later Medieval Sweden 31

* Mia Korpiola

3. When Two Worlds Collide: Marriage and the Law in Medieval Ireland 53

* Gillian Kenny

4. Married Women, Crime and the Courts in Late Medieval Wales 71

* Lizabeth Johnson

5. Peasant Women, Agency and Status in Mid-Thirteenth- to Late Fourteenth-Century England: Some Reconsiderations 91

* Miriam Müller

6. London’s Married Women, Debt Litigation and Coverture in the Court of Common Pleas 115

* Matthew Frank Stevens

7. Married Women, Contracts and Coverture in Late Medieval England 133

* Cordelia Beattie

8. Property, Family and Partnership: Married Women and Legal Capability in Late Medieval Ghent 155

* Shennan Hutton

9. ‘For His Interest’? Women, Debt and Coverture in Early Modern Scotland 173

* Cathryn Spence
10. The Worth of Married Women in the English Church Courts, c.1550–1730
   Alexandra Shepard

   Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index