Society and Animals publishes studies which describe and analyze our experience of nonhuman animals. The goal of the journal is to stimulate and support an emerging content area within the social sciences consisting of studies of the ways in which nonhuman animals figure in our lives.

S&A is published by Psychologists for the Ethical Treatment of Animals. PSYeta is an independent, national nonprofit organization of psychologists and other social scientists interested in animal welfare. PSYeta also publishes an annual, Humane Innovations and Alternatives. Volume 6 (1992) now available.

Individual subscriptions and $30 for volume 1 (2 issues), payable to PSYeta, P.O. Box 1297, Washington Grove, MD 20880. For information on manuscript submission, write to the editor at the same address.
