The editor is pleased to receive manuscripts for publication in Medical History. Each submission requires a short abstract of up to 250 words should be included. The abstract should include a statement of the problem, the evidence and analysis, and the conclusions. It should be written in the past tense and should not exceed 250 words. The abstract should be submitted electronically as an email attachment, preferably as a Word document.

SUBMISSIONS
Medical History is refereed and invites contributions from all aspects of the history of medicine, health and related sciences, with the goal of broadening and deepening the understanding of the field, in the widest sense, by historical studies of the highest quality. It is associated with the European Association for the History of Medicine and related Sciences and the Asian Society for the History of Medicine and the World Health Organization's Global Health Histories initiative. The editorial board reflects the commitment to the finest international standards in refereeing of submitted papers and the reviewing of books.

The journal publishes in English, but welcomes submissions from scholars for whom English is not the first language; language and style are refereed thoroughly and final editorial changes are made.

Books
Books for review should be sent to the Book Reviews Editor, Professor Akhiltej Saini, Department of Economics, Keio University, 4-1-1 Hiyoshi, Kohoku-ku, Yokohama-shi, Kanagawa 223-8521, Japan. Email: asaini@kec.keio.ac.jp. Please note that the journal does not accept unsolicited reviews.
