CONTEMPORARY MORAL AND SOCIAL ISSUES:
An Introduction Through Original Fiction, Discussion, and Readings

By Thomas D. Davis

Author of Philosophy: An Introduction Through Original Fiction, Discussion, and Readings

Contemporary Moral and Social Issues is a uniquely entertaining introduction that brings ethical thought to life. It makes innovative use of engaging, topically oriented original short fiction, together with classic and influential readings and editorial discussion as a means of helping students think philosophically about ethical theory and practical ethical problems. The stories include:

- “The Trainers,” where it turns out an alien race that saved humans from extinction is now raising those humans for food, using the same justifications we use with animals;
- “People of the Underground,” where people holding out against the genetically engineered “Clenes” make the preservation of “true humanity” seem of dubious value;
- “The River,” where a Westerner in an isolated outpost is faced with a steady stream of people who will die unless he makes Peter-Singer-style sacrifices to save them; and
- “The Divided States of America,” a satire in which the mid-twentieth-century United States is dividing up into four separate countries based on caricature versions of liberalism, conservatism, libertarianism and socialism.

“THOMAS DAVIS’S BOOK IS AN ABSOLUTE JOY TO READ. His original fiction flows seamlessly into the philosophical discussions, masterfully guiding the study of ethics to where it really matters: life.”
—Mark D. White, Professor and Chair, Department of Philosophy, College of Staten Island/CUNY

“DAVIS HAS WRITTEN A FANTASTIC INTRODUCTION TO ETHICS TEXT. His unique blend of original fiction, clear analysis, and engaging primary sources provides a sure-fire way to get students talking and thinking about some of today’s most pressing moral issues.”
—Matt Lawrence, Long Beach City College

Hegel Bulletin is a leading English language journal for anyone interested in Hegel's thought, its context, legacy and contemporary relevance. The Bulletin aims to promote high quality contributions in the field of Hegel studies which is broadly construed to include all aspects of Hegel's thought, and its relation and relevance to the history of philosophy; Hegelian contributions to all aspects of current philosophical enquiry; German and British Idealism, Marx and Marxism, Critical Theory, American Pragmatism; and studies in the reception history of Hegel and German Idealism.
Think has been created to forge a direct link between contemporary philosophy and the widest possible readership. The central aim of the journal is to provide to a very wide audience – encompassing undergraduates, ‘A’ level students, students in further education and the general public – highly accessible and engaging writing by philosophers pre-eminent in their fields. Think also aims to counter the popular impression that philosophy is pointless and wholly detached from everyday life. Its contributors sometimes expose some of the bad philosophy which currently passes as accepted wisdom in certain circles (e.g. religious, scientific, anthropological, etc). Perhaps most importantly, Think gives contemporary philosophers the chance to help nurture and encourage philosophers of the next generation.
Utilitas is one of the leading international journals in ethics, offering high quality research in all aspects of the development of utilitarian thought and in all areas in which utilitarianism has made a contribution. As a pioneering, interdisciplinary journal, Utilitas will be of interest not only to moral philosophers but also to economists, political theorists, intellectual historians and legal theorists.

Editorial Policy of Philosophy

The editorial policy of the journal pursues the aims of the Institute: to promote the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, music, art and education. The Institute is not committed to any school or organization and its membership is not restricted to those with special qualifications in philosophy. Contributors are expected to avoid all needless technical language, and the journal is not an appropriate place for the discussion of institutional questions of methodological or meta-philosophical issues.

Instructions for Contributors

Prospective contributors should email their contributions as .doc files (not pdfs) to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org

Contributions should on no account be longer than 10,000 words. Generally speaking far shorter is much to be preferred.

Authors should observe the journal’s style. The Editor will alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to journal style.

Quotation marks

Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. E.g. “he quoted ‘one should only use double quotation marks’”, and storm’d off. Unless the punctuation is an integral part of the quotation, it should be outside the quotation marks. E.g. “he quoted ‘one should only use double quotation marks’”.

He nodded and replied ‘yes, that’s exactly right’.

Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks. Scare quotes should be in single quotation marks.

Italics

The titles of books and journals should be in italics. Foreign words and phrases should be in italics. E.g. ‘reductio ad absurdum’ and ‘a priori’.

Hyphens, en-rules, em-rules

En-rules should be used for parentheses, rather than em-rules. E.g. ‘(em-rules are – according to Hart’s rules – the most appropriate for London journals.)’ NOT ‘en-rules are—according to Hart’s rules—the most appropriate for London journals.’

En-rules should be used to indicate ranges, rather than hyphens. E.g. ‘136–234’ NOT ‘136-234’

Footnotes

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes. Citations should also be given as footnotes and should appear as follows:

NOTE – do not include ‘pp.’ or ‘p.’ to indicate pages.

Structure

Subtitle should be headed with Arabic rather than Roman numerals.

Abstracts should appear at the start of articles, and should be between 100 and 200 words in length.

The end of articles, the author’s biographical note will be inserted. This will include the author’s name, email (unless otherwise stipulated by the author), and a couple of sentences detailing research interests and recent publications.

Contributions should on no account be longer than 10,000 words. Generally speaking far shorter is much to be preferred.

More information on article submission and editorial policy can be found on the Institute’s website: http://www.royalinstitutephilosophy.org.
