CONTEMPORARY MORAL AND SOCIAL ISSUES:
An Introduction Through Original Fiction, Discussion, and Readings

By Thomas D. Davis

Author of Philosophy: An Introduction Through Original Fiction, Discussion, and Readings

Contemporary Moral and Social Issues is a uniquely entertaining introduction that brings ethical thought to life. It makes innovative use of engaging, topically oriented original short fiction, together with classic and influential readings and editorial discussion as a means of helping students think philosophically about ethical theory and practical ethical problems. The stories include:

- “The Trainers,” where it turns out an alien race that saved humans from extinction is now raising those humans for food, using the same justifications we use with animals;

- “People of the Underground,” where people holding out against the genetically engineered “Clenes” make the preservation of “true humanity” seem of dubious value;

- “The River,” where a Westerner in an isolated outpost is faced with a steady stream of people who will die unless he makes Peter-Singer-style sacrifices to save them; and

- “The Divided States of America,” a satire in which the mid-twentieth-century United States is dividing up into four separate countries based on caricature versions of liberalism, conservatism, libertarianism and socialism.

“THOMAS DAVIS’S BOOK IS AN ABSOLUTE JOY TO READ. His original fiction flows seamlessly into the philosophical discussions, masterfully guiding the study of ethics to where it really matters: life.”
—Mark D. White, Professor and Chair, Department of Philosophy, College of Staten Island/CUNY

“DAVIS HAS WRITTEN A FANTASTIC INTRODUCTION TO ETHICS TEXT. His unique blend of original fiction, clear analysis, and engaging primary sources provides a sure-fire way to get students talking and thinking about some of today’s most pressing moral issues.”
—Matt Lawrence, Long Beach City College

Hegel Bulletin is a leading English language journal for anyone interested in Hegel’s thought, its context, legacy and contemporary relevance. The Bulletin aims to promote high quality contributions in the field of Hegel studies which is broadly construed to include all aspects of Hegel’s thought, and its relation and relevance to the history of philosophy; Hegelian contributions to all aspects of current philosophical enquiry; German and British Idealism, Marx and Marxism, Critical Theory, American Pragmatism; and studies in the reception history of Hegel and German Idealism.
Think
Philosophy for everyone
Published for the Royal Institute of Philosophy

Editor
Stephen Law, Heythrop College, University of London, UK

Think has been created to forge a direct link between contemporary philosophy and the widest possible readership. The central aim of the journal is to provide to a very wide audience – encompassing undergraduates, ‘A’ level students, students in further education and the general public – highly accessible and engaging writing by philosophers pre-eminent in their fields. Think also aims to counter the popular impression that philosophy is pointless and wholly detached from everyday life. Its contributors sometimes expose some of the bad philosophy which currently passes as accepted wisdom in certain circles (e.g. religious, scientific, anthropological, etc). Perhaps most importantly, Think gives contemporary philosophers the chance to help nurture and encourage philosophers of the next generation.

Editorial Policy of Philosophy

The editorial policy of the journal pursues the aims of the Institute: to promote the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, politics and education. The Institute is not dedicated to any school or organized group and its membership is not restricted to those with special qualifications in philosophy. Contributors are expected to avoid all needless technical jargon.

Instructions for Contributors

Prospective authors should email their contributions as .doc files (not pdfs) to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org

Contributions should on no account be longer than 10,000 words. Generally speaking far shorter is much to be preferred.

Authors should observe the journal’s title. The Editor will alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to journal style.

Quotation marks

Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. E.g. He said ‘you should only use double quotation marks’, and stormed off. Unless the punctuation is an integral part of the quotation, it should be outside the quotation marks.

Copyright

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. Footnotes

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes. Citations should also be given as footnotes and should appear as follows:

NOTE: do not include ‘pp.’ or ‘p.’ to indicate pages.

Structure

Subsections should be headed with Arabic rather than Roman numerals.

Abstracts should appear at the start of articles, and should be between 100 and 200 words in length.

The end of articles, the author’s biographical note will be inserted. This will include the author’s name, email (unless otherwise stipulated by the author), and a couple of sentences detailing research interests and recent publications.

SEBASTIAN WINSTANLEY (sebastianley@bies.ac.uk) is Professor of Philosophy at the British Institute of Ephemeral Studies. His recent publications include The Disappearance of Nothingness (Ascana Press, 2011) and Deaths, My Friend (Methuen, 2011). ’

Only corrections of typesetter’s errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations of address to the Hon. Professor O’Hea as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive a pdf offprint free of charge. Print offprints may be purchased from the publisher if ordered at proof stage. Authors will also receive a copy of the issue in which their article appears.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright (on certain conditions) to the Royal Institute of Philosophy so that their interest may be safeguarded.

Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be inserted in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their manuscript.

Authors’ corrected proofs should be sent via email to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org.
