RULES RELATING TO MEMBERSHIP AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

3. (a) Members shall be divided into three classes:—

(1) Resident Members; those who usually reside or have a place of business within the London Postal Area.
(2) Non-resident Members; those who usually reside outside, and have not a place of business within, the above-stated area.
(3) Honorary Members and Foreign Extraordinary Members admitted as hereinafter provided.

(b) Members in the first two classes are hereinafter designated Ordinary Members.

4. Any person desirous of becoming an Ordinary Member must be nominated by one Member and seconded by another, of whom one must act on a personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Member; and the nominating Member shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate’s name, address, and occupation, or status, and shall state to which of the aforesaid classes the candidate desires to be admitted. Provided always that in the case of persons domiciled abroad, it shall be within the power of the Council on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate, to dispense with these conditions.

17. The annual subscriptions of Ordinary Members shall be as follows:—

A NEW REPRINT

WADDELL (L. A.). The Buddhism of Tibet, or Lamaism, with its Mystic Cults, Symbolism and Mythology, and in its Relation to Indian Buddhism. 8vo, with illustrations, cloth, 12s. 6d. (repr.), 1939.

A reprint of the standard work on the subject which had been long out of print and a rare book. The author studied Buddhism in Burma and Ceylon, Sikhim, Bhotan and Japan, studied and excavated in India, learned the Tibetan language, and then spent several years in Tibet studying the religion and the people. The result was this book, which has never been nor is likely to be superseded.

W. HEFFER & SONS, Ltd.
"GREAT BRITAIN AND THE EAST" is the only weekly journal in Great Britain devoted specifically and exclusively to the general affairs of the many important countries indicated in its title. Its International, as well as Imperial, status is therefore unique, and its circulation is as wide-ranging as the territories it covers.

In brief, its aim is to record, and comment on, the activities—political, cultural, and economic—of the peoples of the NEAR AND MIDDLE EAST, INDIA AND THE FAR EAST, to supply them with a practical link with Great Britain as well as with one another, and to promote their material prosperity by the assistance given to industry and commerce.

Regular Features for Readers:—

Special articles by distinguished authorities on current issues
Book Reviews
Commercial and Financial Section
Illustrations

The annual subscription comprises not only the regular weekly numbers but also the valuable Supplements issued during the course of the year. These deal authoritatively and comprehensively with the progress—economic, social, and political—of the particular country dealt with, covering the industries and oversea trade, so that their contents form a handy work of reference.
