

Journal – Grant of Licence Open Access form

Please complete both Sections A and B, sign, and return this form to AJIL Unbound Production, Cambridge University Press, One Liberty Plaza, New York, NY 10006, USA or by email to journalscopyright@cambridge.org as a scanned, signed (but not electronically signed) document, as soon as possible. By completing, signing and returning this form you hereby agree to the Terms and Conditions enclosed.

AJIL UnboundAJU

In consideration of the publication in AJIL Unbound of the contribution entitled:

.....

by (all authors' names):.....

Section A – Grant of Rights (fill in either part a.1 or a.2 or a.3)a.1 To be filled in if copyright belongs to you*Grant of rights

I/we hereby grant to the American Society of International Law, the sole and exclusive right and licence to produce and publish and itself further to license the production and publication of the contribution in all forms and media and in all languages throughout the world together with the sole and exclusive right to lease to others the volume and subsidiary rights in the contribution. Copyright in the contribution shall remain my/our property and the copyright notice to be printed on every copy of the contribution shall be in my/our name(s). This grant of rights includes any supplementary materials that I/we may author in support of the online version.

I/we hereby assert my/our moral rights in accordance with the UK Copyright Designs and Patents Act (1988).

Signed (tick one)

- ☐ the sole author(s)
☐ one author authorised to execute this transfer on behalf of all the authors of the above article unless any authors are Government employees (see section a.3 below)

Name (block letters)

Institution/Company

Signature:..... Date:.....

a.2 To be filled in if copyright does not belong to you

Name and address of copyright holder

.....

The copyright holder hereby grants to the American Society of International Law the exclusive right to publish the contribution in the Journal including within an Open Access environment and including any supplementary materials that support the online version and to deal with requests from third parties.

(Signature of copyright holder or authorised agent).....

a.3 US Government exemption

I/we certify that the paper above was written in the course of employment by the Government of Australia, Canada, United Kingdom or USA so that no copyright exists in the United States. If a particular form of wording exists, to declare copyright, please supply this.

Signature:..... Name (Block letters):

Section B – Warranty and disclosure of conflict of interest ((fill in both sections b.1 and b.2)b.1 Warranty

I/we warrant that I am/we are the sole owner or co-owners of the contribution and have full power to make this agreement, and that the contribution has not been previously published, contains nothing that is in any way an infringement of any existing copyright or licence, or duty of confidentiality, or duty to respect privacy, or any other right of any person or party whatsoever and contains nothing libellous or unlawful; and that all statements purporting to be facts are true and that any recipe, formula, instruction or equivalent published in the Journal will not, if followed accurately, cause any injury or damage to the user. I/we further warrant that permission for all appropriate uses has been obtained from the copyright holder for any material not in my/our copyright including any audio and video material, that the appropriate acknowledgement has been made to the original source, and that in the case of audio or video material appropriate releases have been obtained from persons whose voices or likenesses are represented therein. I/we attach copies of all permission and release correspondence. I indemnify and keep Cambridge University Press and American Society of International Law indemnified against any loss, injury or damage (including any legal costs and disbursements paid by them to compromise or settle any claim) occasioned to them in consequence of any breach of these warranties.

Name (block letters).....

Signature Date

(one author authorised to execute this warranty statement above and conflict of interest statement below on behalf of all the authors of the above article)

b.2 Conflict of Interest

Please disclose any potential conflict of interest pertaining to your contribution or the Journal; or write 'NONE' to indicate you declare no such conflict of interest exists. A conflict of interest might exist if you have a competing interest (real or apparent) that could be considered or viewed as exerting an undue influence on you or your contribution. Examples could include financial, institutional or collaborative relationships. The Journal's editor(s) shall contact you if any disclosed conflict of interest may affect publication of your contribution in the Journal.

Potential conflict of interest

The information provided on this form will be held in perpetuity for record purposes. The name(s) and address(es) of the author(s) of the contribution may be reproduced in the journal and provided to print and online indexing and abstracting services and bibliographic databases.

Creative Commons Licence

Please note that articles published in the Journal are published under the terms of the following Creative Commons Licence:

Attribution – CC-BY

The CC-BY licence permits unrestricted re-use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited. For more information see: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>

Terms and Conditions for authors to AJIL Unbound, ‘the Journal’ published by Cambridge University Press.

By completing, signing and returning the Grant of Licence form (Form JEL.14.1) you have agreed to abide by the following Terms and Conditions. Please retain this document for future reference.

A. The Journal's policy is to acquire exclusive publication rights in all contributions. This ensures that requests by third parties to reprint or reproduce a contribution, or part of it, are handled efficiently and in accordance with a general policy that is sensitive both to any relevant changes in international copyright legislation and to the general desirability of encouraging the dissemination of knowledge.

B. Two ‘moral rights’ were conferred on authors by the UK Copyright Act in 1988. In the UK an author’s ‘right of paternity’, the right to be properly credited whenever the work is published (or performed or broadcast), requires that this right is asserted in writing.

C. Cambridge University Press co-operates in various licensing schemes that allow material to be photocopied within agreed restraints (e.g. the CCC in the USA and the CLA in the UK). Any proceeds received from such licenses, together with any proceeds from sales of subsidiary rights in the Journal, directly support its continuing publication.

D. It is understood that in some cases copyright will be held by the author’s employer. If so, Cambridge University Press requires exclusive permission to deal with requests from third parties.

E. Permission to include material not in your copyright. If your article, including any supplementary materials, includes textual or illustrative material not in your copyright and not covered by fair use / fair dealing, permission must be obtained from the relevant copyright owner (usually the publisher or via the publisher) for the non-exclusive right to reproduce the material worldwide in all forms and media, including electronic publication. Please note that illustrative material (such as photographs/drawings) are not included in fair use/fair dealing provisions, even if acknowledged, and permission should be sought for their use in your article. The relevant permission correspondence should be attached to your grant of licence form.

F. Cambridge University Press acts in accordance with the UK Bribery Act 2010 and the Data Protection Act 1998. Please refer to the Press’s relevant policies, (<http://www.cambridge.org/policy/privacy/>), (http://www.cambridge.org/policy/abc_policy/) which may be revised from time to time.

Open Access Publication

1.1. The contribution will be published in the Journal within an Open Access environment, freely accessible to those who wish to browse, read, print, save, copy, display or further disseminate the contribution including the posting of the contribution on a free website or in an institutional repository, or to alter, transform or build up the contribution to create a derivative work, provided all such uses include an attribution of the contribution to its author with full details of its title and place of original publication including copyright line, and a link to the URL of Cambridge University Press’s website for the journal of original publication. Cambridge University Press will license such uses under the following Creative Commons licence: Attribution (‘CC-BY’) currently available at <<http://creativecommons.org/licenses>>. But if you wish to publish your article using a different Licence, we also offer Attribution – Non-Commercial – Share Alike (‘CC-BY-NC-SA’) and Attribution – Non-Commercial – No Derivatives (‘CC-BY-NC-ND’)

1.2. You retain the right to re-use the contribution or an adapted version of it in any volume of which you are editor or author, whether or not for commercial gain, and permission will automatically be given to the publisher of such a volume subject to normal acknowledgement.

1.3. For the absence of doubt, prohibited uses will include:

- Reproduction of the contribution in a potentially defamatory context or any other context which may reasonably be deemed inappropriate to the reproduction of a scholarly article bearing the imprint of a respectable academic publisher.
- Reproduction in any context which breaches the Author’s right of paternity under the UK Copyrights Designs and Patents Act (1988).