

Painted by M. Brown.

SHAKSPEARE.

King Richard the Second

ACT IV. SCENE I.

King Richard, Buckingham, York, Aumerle, &c.

Pub. June 4, 1803, by J. & J. BOYDELL, at the Shakespeare Gallery, Pall Mall, & No. 10, Chancery Lane, London.

Engraved by B. Smith.

Rich. Give me the crown. Here, cousin, seize the crown.

Here, cousin, on the side, my hand, on that side, thou.

Brown, Mather, artist. Shakespeare. King Richard the Second. Act IV. Scene I. for A collection of prints, from pictures painted for the purpose of illustrating the dramatic works of Shakespeare, by the artists of Great-Britain. London: John and Josiah Boydell., 1791-1803. Folger ART Flat b1-2 copy 1

Boydell's collection of prints capitalized on the public's interest in the Boydell Shakespeare Gallery, a project John Boydell initiated in 1786 to foster a school of British history painting. He commissioned paintings from the leading artists of his day and installed them in a public gallery in London.

From an original in the Folger Shakespeare Library

Licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-SA 4.0)