

Wright, Alice Morgan, artist. Lady Macbeth. United States: c. 1910. Folger ART Inv. 1052 (realia)

This modernist bronze sculpture of Lady Macbeth was a gift to Henry Clay Folger from Emily Jordan Folger's sister, Mary Augusta Jordan. The Folgers did not display the sculpture in their home, and the piece remained in storage until 1931, the year before the Library opened, when it became one of the items featured in the new exhibition hall.
