

Publish Open Access

with support from your institution

1. Choose the journal that best fits your work on Cambridge Core

2. Follow the instructions on your journal's homepage to submit your manuscript*

* Eligibility is based on the corresponding author's affiliation

3. Upon acceptance, choose Open Access and select a Creative Commons license

This will determine how readers can use your article. Your funder or institution may require you to select a particular Creative Commons license, e.g. CC-BY.

4. Coordinate your APC transaction through our partner Rightslink® and seek funding from your institution Affiliated corresponding authors are eligible to have their APC fully covered. Your institution has pre-paid for OA publishing as part of this agreement.

5. Once published, promote your research!
