Journal of Paleontology

The Journal of Paleontology publishes original articles and notes on the systematics, phylogeny, paleoecology, paleogeography, and evolution of fossil organisms. It emphasizes specimen-based research and features high quality illustrations. All taxonomic groups are treated, including invertebrates, microfossils, plants, vertebrates, and ichnofossils.

Key Journal of Paleontology information:

ISSN: 0022-3360 (Print), 1937-2337 (Online)

Editors: Jonathan Calede Carnegie Museum of Natural History, USA, Elizabeth Hermesen Milwaukee Public Museum, Wisconsin, USA, Olev Vinn University of Tartu, Estonia, and Samuel Zamora Geological Survey of Spain, (IGME-CSIC)/Spain

Frequency: 6 issues per year

Availability: Online only on Cambridge Core at cambridge.org/jpa

Paleobiology

Paleobiology publishes original contributions of any length (but normally 10-50 manuscript pages) dealing with any aspect of biological paleontology. Emphasis is placed on biological or paleobiological processes and patterns, including macroevolution, extinction, diversification, speciation, functional morphology, bio-geography, phylogeny, paleoecology, molecular paleontology, taphonomy, natural selection and patterns of variation, abundance, and distribution in space and time, among others. Taxonomic papers are welcome if they have significant and broad applications. Papers concerning research on recent organisms and systems are appropriate if they are of particular interest to paleontologists. Papers should typically interest readers from more than one specialty. Proposals for symposium volumes should be discussed in advance with the editors.

Key Paleobiology information:

ISSN: 0094-8373 (Print), 1938-5331 (Online)

Editor: James Crampton Victoria University of Wellington | Te Herenga Waka, New Zealand

Frequency: 4 issues per year

Availability: Online only on Cambridge Core at cambridge.org/pab
