

6.1

Draw a line from each sentence on the left to a sentence on the right to complete the dialogues.

1 Are you all right?	A Fine. That's no problem.
2 You look pale. Is there anything I can do?	B Can I have your name, please?
3 I'd like an appointment with the doctor, please.	C 4.30. Can you fill in this form, please?
4 Hello. I have an appointment at 4.30.	D No, but write your home doctor's details here, please.
5 I'm from Spain. I'm here temporarily on business.	E No, thanks. Maybe I'll go home early today.
6 Do you need my insurance details?	F Yes, I think you should.
7 I don't feel well. I think I'll go home.	G Thanks.
8 Hi, you're back! Are you feeling better now?	H No, actually I don't feel very well.
9 We missed you. Welcome back!	I Yes, much better, thanks.

6.2

Match the different types of accommodation (A-K) with the descriptions (1-11).

A campsite	F chalet
B bed and breakfast	G house swap
C hotel	H farmhouse
D self-catering accommodation	I villa
E youth hostel	J guesthouse
	K caravan

- 1 Maybe you could collect eggs or milk the cows here.
- 2 You can cook your own meals here whenever you want to.
- 3 This is where you can sleep in a tent.

- 4 Guests have a wide range of services to choose from here.
- 5 You will need to go out for your evening meal if you stay here.
- 6 This accommodation is often mobile.
- 7 You can borrow someone else's house while they stay in yours.
- 8 This large private home often has a swimming pool in its grounds.
- 9 This cheap accommodation is often for younger people.
- 10 This private house offers meals too.
- 11 Often found in the mountains – good when skiing.

Test mark /20