

27.1

Write one word in each gap to complete the dialogues. The first letter has been given to help you.

1

A: Excuse me. Could you tell me, what

(1) e..... toad in the hole is?

B: Yes, madam. Toad in the hole is sausages cooked in a light batter, served in a dish.

A: Right. I think I'll try it, please – it sounds very interesting.

2

A: That was excellent, thank you. Were the sausages locally made?

B: Yes. We use a local butcher.

A: Could you tell me (2) w..... I can get some? I'd also love to have the

(3) r..... for the dish.

3

A: The beef was (4) d..... . How was it (5) c..... ?

B: I cook it very slowly in the oven for about three hours with onions, garlic and beef stock. The most (6) i..... thing is to cook it slowly at a medium temperature.

27.2

Match the different types of cooking methods (A-F) with the descriptions (1-6). Write the letter of your answer in the box at the end of the sentence.

1 Food that is not cooked at all, for example fish or vegetables.
2 Meat – like beef or chicken – cooked in the oven.
3 Food like sausages and bacon, cooked under the heat on a hot metal pan.
4 Food like cakes and bread, cooked in an oven.
5 Fish can be cooked like this, gently in a pan of very hot water.
6 Food like eggs in their shells, cooked in a pan of very hot water.

A grilled

B roasted

C boiled

D poached

E baked

F raw

27.3

Choose the best alternative to complete the sentences.

- I can't eat rich / tender food any more – it upsets my stomach.
- I like vegetables to be quite crunchy – not undercooked / overcooked.
- I'm not keen on peanuts. I find them too sour / salty.
- I'm not a pudding person. I much prefer savoury / sweet food.
- This milk is on / off. It smells horrible!
- I much prefer a medium / middle wine to a dry one.
- I bought these bananas when they were green but I think they're ripe / tender now.
- My husband eats his steak quite rare / raw – so it's just pink inside.

Test mark /20