

8.1

Decide which of the alternatives (A-M) matches each definition. Write the letter of your answer in the box at the end of the sentence.

1 Linking business with business improves ...
2 An organisation of business people working together to improve business in a town or local area.
3 Each one of these takes a different side in politics.
4 When all voters in a country choose the government.
5 The weeks before an election when politicians try to persuade people to vote for them.
6 A person who has been elected to the parliament of a country.
7 The services in a particular area, town or city are run from these.
8 The world's system of trade and industry.
9 The head person of the largest political party which doesn't form the government.
10 An organisation in Britain that is responsible for hospitals and medical services in a particular area.
11 Arrangements between countries around the world.
12 The local government of a city.
13 People with common interests who meet in a particular area.

A Chamber of Commerce B Member of Parliament C Leader of the Opposition D city council
 E health authority F general election G international relations H trade and investment
 I election campaign J community groups K political party L council departments
 M global economy

8.2

Decide which of the alternatives (A-D) each sentence or phrase is used for. You will need to use some alternatives more than once.

1 I'm going to talk for about 20 minutes.
2 Basically, this will be an introduction to ...
3 I'll begin with an overview.
4 There'll be time for questions and a discussion later on.
5 My intention is to introduce you to our company.
6 I'm going to divide my presentation into four parts.
7 Later there'll be time for your questions and a discussion.

A Subject of presentation
 B How long the talk will last for
 C Different parts of the talk
 D Questions and discussion

Test mark	/20
-----------	-----