

Connector Practice

Exercise 1

Add correct punctuation to the following sentences. If necessary, break an item into two sentences and capitalize a word.

1. Although she was born in Germany she does not remember living there.
2. Asia is the biggest continent and it has the biggest population.
3. His machine worked the best thus he won the competition.
4. He wants to go on vacation but he has nobody to go with him.
5. While she was studying for the exam she fell asleep in the library.
6. The cost of rent is expensive that price however also includes heat and electricity.

Exercise 2

Look at the connector in parentheses. If it is a conjunction, combine the sentences using it. If it is a transition word, add it in an acceptable position and punctuate correctly. In some items, more than one combination is possible.

1. You have saved a lot of money. You should spend it on something you like. (so)

2. He needs to leave now. He will be late for work. (or)

---

3. She is going to the coffee shop. She has to work on her homework. (because)

---

4. The temperature has been getting warmer. It doesn't feel like summer yet. (even though)

---

5. Do not try to go there by car. You should take the train. (instead)

---

6. The area gets a lot of rain. A lot of plants are able to grow there. (therefore)
