Celebrating 25 Years of Practice Test Books

Dear teachers

I'm delighted that you're considering our official preparation materials to prepare for Cambridge English Qualifications and IELTS.

We take great pride in the fact that our materials draw on the expertise of a whole team of writers, teachers, assessors and exam experts. These are materials that you can really trust.

Our preparation materials are unique in many ways:

- They combine the skills and knowledge of the teams at Cambridge Assessment English, who create the tests, and the teams at Cambridge University Press, who create the English Language Teaching materials.
- They draw upon the experience of millions of previous exam candidates – where they succeed and where they have difficulties. We target exercises and activities precisely at these areas so that you can actively learn from previous test takers' mistakes.
- Every single task in our materials has been carefully checked to be an accurate reflection of what test takers find in the test.

In addition, we listen to what you tell us at every stage of the development process. This allows us to design the most user-friendly courses, practice tests and supplementary training. We create materials using in-depth knowledge, research and practical understanding. Prepare for Cambridge English Qualifications and IELTS with confidence in the knowledge that you have the best materials available to support you on your way to success.

We wish you the very best on your exam journey with us.

With kind regards,

Pamela Baxter
Director
Cambridge Exams Publishing

THE STORY OF CAMBRIDGE
OFFICIAL
PREPARATION
MATERIALS

Experts together

Background

Cambridge University Press and Cambridge Assessment English, part of The University of Cambridge, have brought together their expertise to develop Official Exam Preparation Materials for Cambridge qualifications and tests. Since 2013 we have been working hand-in-hand with teachers and test-takers in order to create the very best learning materials.

Students and teachers choose Cambridge Assessment English qualifications because they are world leading qualifications. They choose our official preparation materials to provide them with the best possible preparation for exams. Thanks to our unique combination of expertise in teaching, learning and assessment, we are able to provide students and teachers with engaging, innovative and authoritative resources they can trust. Our ever-growing product range includes coursebooks in print and digital format, and supplementary materials.

25 years of Practice Test books

Since the very beginnings of Cambridge as an English testing organisation we have provided support materials to teachers and test takers. This year we are celebrating 25 years of producing Authentic Practice Test books, used and loved by so many of you. Our practice tests are the closest thing to the real exam that students can find. They are developed under exactly the same process as the 'real' exams, using the same writing process, standard-setting and pretested with real students — a very accurate tool for checking if students are 'exam-ready'. Teachers and students use them for class practice, for homework or as mock exams, and to familiarise themselves with the format and what to expect on exam day.

Practice makes perfect

Our website, practicemakesperfect.cambridge.org is a key place for teachers to come together to share ideas. The website offers ready-to-use lesson plans, teacher tips, information about extra support and resources, and videos of our favourite teachers' ideas for using Practice Tests in class. Share your top tips with teachers around the world!

Experts together

In order to communicate our unique position we use the term 'experts together' — you will see it on all of our new book covers. Your classroom is where the learning takes place. You, the teacher, are the facilitator, the language guide, the coach, facing different challenges from one day to the next.

We are Cambridge English Assessment experts and Publishing experts working together to provide exclusive insights from exam writing and analysing test-taker past performance. We carefully create all our preparation materials to make sure you have the very best. Our courses each have a unique Exam Journey ensuring every student is ready on exam day — from first experiences of exam tasks to skills development, from language discovery to understanding how English works in the real world. You understand your learners and their needs. You are the experts. We listen to you, building our materials from what you tell us you need. Our goal is to help you get the best result in everything you do. Together we are an expert team.

Our research determines that all students are capable of achieving great things. Student potential is endless, improvement a habit to be formed, a method to be learnt — success is not simply the domain of the proven well-performing student. Research now proves students who are encouraged, and brimming with self-belief, have better educational outcomes. We are all experts together focussed on the same outcomes for students — a journey to exam day that builds confidence in the skills needed to perform at their best on test day and every day that follows.

UNIT 08: NATURAL WORLD

LISTENING

IN THIS UNIT YOU WILL LEARN HOW TO

- listen to people talking about a topic related to work or study
- complete notes in a task
- use headings in the notes to guide you through what the speaker is saying
- use the speaker's 'signposting' words to help you follow notes

LEAD-IN

0 1 Match photographs A–D with the names of the animals.

Arabian leopard blue ring octopus mountain gorilla Pere David's deer

D

0 2 Listen to the four short extracts. Which animal in exercise 1 is each speaker describing?

1 _____ 3 _____

2 _____ 4 _____

NOTE COMPLETION

0 3 In this type of task you complete a set of notes by writing up to three words, or two words and/or a number, in each gap. The instructions tell you how many words you are allowed to write.

You must complete the notes with the words you hear on the recording.

USING HEADINGS TO HELP YOU

0 3 Match the headings 1–5 with the questions a–e.

1 Country of origin	a What does it eat?
2 Dangers	b Where does it come from?
3 Diet	c Where does it live?
4 Habitat	d What does it look like?
5 Physical description	e What threats does it face?

0 4 Look at the notes about the animals. Match the headings 1–5 in exercise 3 with the notes below. There is an example to help you.

a People are using its land for cows and sheep	_____
b Mainly eats grass	_____
c Has long arms	_____
d Lives on wet lands	_____
e Comes from Africa	_____

'SIGNPOSTING' WORDS

0 5 Look at the signposting phrases 1–6 below. They signal different kinds of information. Match them with the meanings a–e. One meaning can be used twice.

- So, now I'm going to talk a little about ...
- Let's have a look at two reasons why ...
- So, I'll move on to talk about ...
- Firstly ... Secondly
- I'd like to conclude by talking about ...
- In other words ...

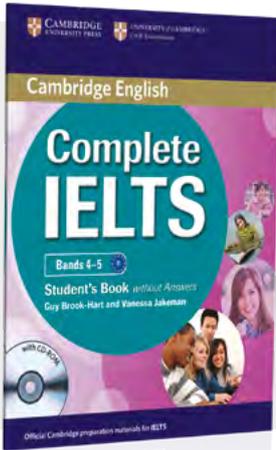

- The speaker is going to talk about a new topic and this will be the last thing he/she talks about (might be the last heading on the Notes).
- The speaker is going to talk about a new topic – which might be a new heading on the Notes.
- The speaker is going to say the same thing using different words.
- The speaker is going to give two reasons – listen carefully for both.
- Here is the first (reason) ... and here is the second (reason)

TIP 0 3 The notes often have headings to guide you. They can help you follow what the speaker(s) are saying.

TIP 0 4 Notes often do not follow grammatical rules or layout. For example, there may be auxiliary verbs or articles missing. The notes may also be lists with bullet points.

TIP 0 5 'Signposting' words are words and phrases that speakers use to help their listeners follow their talk.
