THE
PITT BUILDING

Welcome to our first newsletter

Introducing The Edit, our brand-new quarterly newsletter and your inside connection to the Pitt Building.

From availability updates to upcoming events and venue news, this is where we'll share what's happening at the Pitt Building.

And we couldn't have chosen a better moment to begin.

We're open. Refreshed. Ready.

With our improvement works complete, the Pitt Building is officially back in business.

Over the past few months, we've carefully enhanced the building whilst preserving the historic character that makes it so distinctive. The result is a refreshed, flexible venue with a welcoming reception and increased ground floor meeting space. We're now ready to host conferences, corporate meetings, networking events and professional gatherings once again.

Bookings for 2026 have gained momentum, so we recommend securing your preferred dates early to avoid disappointment.

SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

We're delighted to announce that we've been accredited with the Bronze Green Meeting Award from Green Tourism. This new industry standard celebrates organisations taking meaningful steps toward more sustainable meetings and events — and we're proud to be among them.

This achievement reflects the dedication of our team and reinforces to our visitors and clients that sustainability is at the heart of what we do.

And we're not stopping here. Our journey continues as we work towards securing Silver Green Meeting Accreditation.

A note from our events team

We've truly missed the energy of event days – the early preparations, the final room set-ups, and welcoming guests through the doors.

The Pitt Building is more than just a venue. It's a space where ideas are exchanged, collaborations begin, and people and businesses connect. We're excited to open this next chapter and would love to support your upcoming plans.

If you have a date in mind or would like to arrange a private viewing, we're here and ready to help.

We are now taking bookings for:

- Summer Networking Events
- Language school teaching space
- Corporate Away Days
- Training sessions
- Strategy Meetings
- Team Workshops

If you postponed an event during our improvement period, now is the perfect time to reschedule.
