

CITY LIFE

A Write questions about your city using how much or how many.

Questions

1. (crime) How much crime is there?
2. (good restaurants) How many good restaurants are there?
3. (libraries) _____
4. (noise) _____
5. (parks) _____
6. (pollution) _____
7. (good schools) _____
8. (traffic) _____
9. (parking) _____

B Answer the questions with a lot, a little, not much, a few, not any, or none.
Then compare answers with a partner.

Answers

1. There's a little.
2. There are a few.
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____

WHAT'S THE STREET?

PAIR WORK Think of a street in your school's neighborhood or city. Your partner asks yes/no questions and guesses the street.

A: Are there any stores on this street?

A: Is there a park?

B: Yes, there are a lot of stores.

B: Yes, there is.

A: Is there an art museum?

A: Is it Park Avenue?

B: No, there isn't.

B: That's right.