

Talking point 6 A great trip

Dear Mom and Dad,

It's so exciting to be in South Africa! Yesterday, I visited Tembe Elephant National Park. The animals were all very active. I took lots of great photos. Last night was really fun. I went to an unusual restaurant and tried some local food. After dinner, I watched some traditional dancers. I took pictures of them, too. Traveling is very tiring, but I'm finding some time to relax. This morning, I slept late. Today, I'm going to try surfing!

See you soon!
