

3A That sounds delicious!

Activity 1

- A A: Which breakfast looks the best?
B: The third breakfast looks the best. I prefer fruit and yogurt in the morning. How about you?
A: I think the first breakfast looks the best. I love . . .
A: What do you usually have for breakfast?
B: For breakfast, I usually have toast, juice, milk, and fruit.
A: What's your favorite meal of the day?
B: My favorite meal of the day is dinner. My whole family sits down to eat together, and we enjoy talking about our day.
A: That sounds nice. I enjoy . . .

Activity 1

- B A: How many things can we add to the chart? Can you think of any more meats?
B: Sure. There's chicken and beef.
A: Oh, there's also veal. How about seafood?

Activity 1

- C A: Let's compare lists. Oh, you have veal. We didn't think of veal. But we have the same seafood.
B: Wow! You have a lot of different fruits and vegetables.
C: Yes. In our list for fruits, we have . . .
A: What's your favorite in each list?
B: OK. My favorites are lamb, tuna, oranges, carrots, and milk. My least favorites are chicken, shrimp, grapes, broccoli, and soda. How about you?
C: My favorites are . . .
A: Which foods can you use these cooking methods with?
B: You can bake cakes and cookies.
C: You can also bake bread and muffins.
D: Yes, you're right. And you can barbecue . . .

Activity 2

- C A: Can you cook? Is there a special dish you can make?
B: I can cook. I can make cereal with milk.
A: That's not cooking! I can really cook. My best dish is vegetable stew.
C: I can't cook, but I'd really like to learn.
A: What are your favorite main dishes?
B: My favorite main dishes are tempura and paella.
C: I love tempura, too. And I like all kinds of pasta.
A: What are your favorite desserts?
B: My favorite dessert is pudding.
C: My favorite dessert – and snack – is chocolate-chip cookies.
A: Are there any foods and drinks you have all the time?
B: In my family, we always have fish for breakfast.
C: We don't eat fish for breakfast, but we have fish every Friday night for dinner.

3B Going out to eat

Activity 1

- A A: What are you going to have?
B: I'm pretty hungry. I think I'll try the dim sum, the fajitas, and an iced tea.
A: I want something light. Maybe I'll just get the sushi and a dessert.

Activity 1

- B A: We each have only $20. Do you want to change your mind?
B: If we order the same main dish, we only pay for one.
A: OK. Let's get the same main dish. Then we can order an appetizer.

Activity 1

- C A: What do you suggest for someone who enjoys spicy food?
B: For someone who enjoys spicy food, I'd recommend fajitas or feijoada.
C: Oh, and lamb kebabs. So, what do you suggest for someone who loves fried food?
D: I'd recommend . . .

Activity 2

- A A: What do you think he's saying in the first picture?
B: I think he's saying, "Welcome! A table for two?"
A: That sounds good to me. And in the next picture, I think he's saying . . .

Activity 2

- C A: What kinds of restaurants do you like? What kinds don't you like?
B: I'll go first. I like Italian restaurants. I don't like fast-food restaurants.
C: Actually, I like fast-food restaurants. And Italian restaurants are probably my least favorite.
A: Really? I love Italian food.

A: How often do you go out to eat? Who do you usually go with?
B: I eat out once or twice a month. I usually go with my family.
C: I eat out almost every night. I usually go by myself.

A: What's the best meal you've ever had?
B: I once ate at a tofu restaurant. Every dish was made from tofu. It was fantastic!
C: That sounds interesting. My best meal was last Sunday – at my grandmother's house!

Activity 3

- A A: Let's start our menu. What appetizers should we include?
B: How about sushi and miso soup?
C: OK. Now, what main dishes do we want to serve?
A: How about . . . ?

Activity 3

- B A: Are you ready to order?
B: Not yet. I have a question. Is the tuna fresh?
A: Yes, of course!
B: OK, I'll have the tuna.
A: And what would you like?
C: I'd like . . .
