

UNIT
47*Web Site Answer Sheet*/l/ • light, fall*Contractions and Weak Pronunciations of will and *would

-  1 Listen to the telephone conversation and circle the correct words in parentheses.

Miguel is calling his friend Lilly, but she's still sleeping.

Leslie (telephone rings) Hello.

Miguel Hello. (I like / I'd like / I'll like) to speak to Lilly, please. This is Miguel from her English class.

Leslie Lilly's still sleeping.

Miguel Is she feeling all right? It's almost eleven o'clock.

Leslie Well, (she likes / she'd like / she'll like) to sleep late on the weekend.

Miguel (I / I'd / I'll) say!

Leslie (Do you like / Would you like / Will you like) to leave a message?

Miguel Could you tell her I called?

Leslie Sure. Anything else?

Miguel Well, I told her (I / I'd / I'll) meet her for lunch at school, but I have to leave early, so I won't be able to.

Leslie OK, (I / I'd / I'll) tell her. (Do you / Would you / Will you) like her to call you back, Miguel?

Miguel No, that's all right. (I / I'd / I'll) call back in a little while. Do you think (she / she'd / she'll) be up by twelve?

Leslie Definitely. She never sleeps through lunch. Well, hardly ever.

- 2 Listen again and check your answers.