Figure and Tables

FIGURE

2.1 The four faces of the EU’s new economic governance (NEG) regime

TABLES

4.1 Analytical framework for the analysis of NEG prescriptions on employment relations

4.2 Analytical framework for the analysis of NEG prescriptions on public services

5.1 Coercive power of NEG prescriptions

6.1 Themes in NEG prescriptions on employment relations (2009–2019)

6.2 Categories of NEG prescriptions on employment relations by coercive power

6.3 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of employment relations (1993–2019)

7.1 Themes of NEG prescriptions on public services (2009–2019)

7.2 Categories of NEG prescriptions on public services by coercive power

7.3 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of public services (1993–2019)

8.1 Themes of NEG prescriptions on transport services (2009–2019)

8.2 Categories of NEG prescriptions on transport services by coercive power
8.3 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of transport services (1993–2019)

9.1 Themes of NEG prescriptions on water services (2009–2019)

9.2 Categories of NEG prescriptions on water services by coercive power

9.3 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of water services (1993–2019)

10.1 Themes of NEG prescriptions on healthcare services (2009–2019)

10.2 Categories of NEG prescriptions on healthcare services by coercive power

10.3 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of healthcare (1993–2019)

11.1 Commodifying NEG prescriptions on employment relations and public services (cross-sectoral)

11.2 Decommodifying NEG prescriptions on employment relations and public services (cross-sectoral)

11.3 Commodifying NEG prescriptions on public services (sectoral)

11.4 Decommodifying NEG prescriptions on public services (sectoral)

11.5 Transnational socioeconomic protests in Europe (1997–2019)

11.6 Transnational socioeconomic protests targeting EU laws and prescriptions by sector

12.1 The EU’s evaluation scoreboard for National Recovery and Resilience Plans

13.1 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of employment relations (2020–28 February 2023)

13.2 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of public services (2020–28 February 2023)

13.3 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of transport services (2020–28 February 2023)

13.4 Transnational protests politicising the EU governance of healthcare 2020–28 February 2023)