INDEX

accounts, for a sustainable economy, see sustainable accounting agriculture marginal costs associated with, 120 physical infrastructure, 86–7 polluter-pays principle, 104–5 assets
  asset valuation, 87–9
  balance sheet, 85–7
  capital maintenance, 74–80
  national accounts, 83–5 remedial and enhancement investments, 80–3 system regulation model, 188–90
  universal service obligations (USOs), 156–60
what should be passed down, 207–9 assets-in-perpetuity, 6–7, 74, 87
asymmetric risks, 44–6
auctions, 185–8
Austrian school of economics economics and entrepreneurs, 46–8 pollution taxes, 105–6 average costs, 117, see also marginal costs balance of payments, 90–1, 140 the balance sheet, 73–4, see also sustainable accounting capital, see also natural capital capital, human, 63–9, 83, 208 natural vs. other capitals, 55–6 physical, 59–63, 208–9 social, 29–30, 69–72, 103–4, 209 capability approach, 104, 163–4 citizens’ debt and liabilities, 173–5
system regulation model, 194–6
what should be passed down, 207–9 Barro, Robert, 146–7
basic income
  and national dividends, 169–72
  universal provision, 162–6
Becker, Gary, 67–8
Bentham, Jeremy, 23
Beveridge, William, 163–4 biodiversity
  capital maintenance, 76, 81–2
  contemporary context, 1–2
  forecasting and uncertainty, 35–9
  global agreements, 109–11
  interventions, 57–8
  limited realistic impartiality, 27
  mass extinctions, 34–5
  biomass as renewable energy, 112
  black swan events, 40–1 Brundtland Report, 31

https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009449212.016 Published online by Cambridge University Press
capital maintenance
  asset valuation, 88
education and R&D, 208
sustainable accounting, 74–80, 89–91
system regulation model, 179–81
capitalism
  the importance of rules, 209–10
  and religion, 69–70
carbon dioxide
  carbon taxes, 95–8, 106
  contemporary context, 1–2
  forecasting and uncertainty, 35–9 catastrophes in human history, 34–5 citizens’ accounts, 85–6
citizens’ debt and liabilities, 173–5
citizens’ equity, 172–3, 191–4 citizenship
  capabilities, 28–31
  social tariffs, 160–2
  universal basic income, 162–6
  universal service obligations (USOs), 156–60, 169–72
classical economics, 135–7 climate change
  asymmetric risks, 45–6
  capital maintenance, 76–7
  constitutional principles, 210–11
  contemporary context, 1–2
  forecasting and uncertainty, 35–9, 42–3
  global agreements, 109–11
  limited realistic impartiality, 27
  and nuclear power, 18–20 research and knowledge, 64
  system regulation model, 184
Coase, Ronald, 99–100
Coase bargaining, 99–101, 106
competitive markets, 47–51 conservation interventions, 57–8 constitutions
  being at the table, 201–2, 226–7 benefits of, 198–200
  embedding the intergenerational constitution, 214–16 embedding the polluter-pays and precautionary principles, 205–6 first principle, 203–5 formalising sticky rights, 202–3 for future generations, 197, 207–9 limiting government discretion and the importance of rules, 209–10 proving the rules are being followed, 212–14 stability benefits, 216–17
  a sustainable economy, 12–13, 226–7
  ways of amending, 210–12
consumption
  basic income and national dividends, 169–72
  citizens and their capabilities, 28–31
  contemporary context, 1–14
  from the Labour Standard to the Consumption Standard, 140–1 living beyond our means, 107–9
  our legacy, 223–4
  polluter-pays principle, 9–11, 93–4
  pure impartiality, 21–4
  social capital, 29–30
  sustainable consumption, 132–4, 153–4 sustainable consumption and investment, 141–9 contract regulation, 185–8
  cost–benefit analysis, 88
COVID-19 pandemic
  impact of lockdowns, 192–3 labour market and productivity, 148–9
  cross-subsidies, 160–2
  cultural norms, 70
  culture of a society, 72
data, and digitalisation, 121–3 debt
  citizens’ debt and liabilities, 173–5
  fiscal deficits, 147
  Keynesian theory, 147, 148
  Modern Monetary Theory (MMT) approach, 149–51
  national accounts, 88, 91–2
  our legacy, 218–27
  remedial investments, 82
sustainable accounts, 8–9 Victorian era economics, 142–3 decentralised economy, 135–7 demand, see supply and demand digitalisation, and zero marginal costs, 119–21 discounting the future
distributional argument, 25–6
economic growth argument, 24–5
nuclear power, 19–20
pure impartiality, 21–4
throughout human history, 18 distributional argument, impartiality principle, 25–6 economic context
Austrian economics and entrepreneurs, 46–8
forecasting and uncertainty, 39–41 ideas, knowledge and human capital, 63–9
polluter-pays principle, 102–5 economic growth
classical economics, 135–7
contemporary trends, 1–14
fiscal deficits, 147
forecasting and uncertainty, 36
impartiality principle, 24–5
living beyond our means, 107–9
our legacy, 225–6
social capital, 69–72
sustainable consumption and Keynesian theory, 132–4
economic policy
classical economics, 135–7
Keynesian theory, 138–40
Modern Monetary Theory (MMT), 149–51
pollution and market failure, 94–9 Thatcherite, 152–3
education attainment and human capital, 68–9
capital maintenance, 208
funding for, 79
system regulation model, 188
energy industry
marginal costs and public goods, 117–20, 123–4 physical infrastructure, 86–7 enforcement
fairness of the polluter-pays principle, 103–4 polluter pays in the absence of global enforcement, 109–11 enhancement investments, 80–3 entrepreneurs, and Austrian economics, 46–8, 51–3 environmentalism
altruism towards the next generation, 16–18 limiting consumption, 91–2, 153–4 overpopulation, 24
self-interest and social capital, 71–2 equity approach, 172–3
European Union (EU) membership, 211–12
externalities
Coase bargaining, 99–101
living beyond our means, 107–9
marginal costs/damages, 95–6
market failure, 98–9
Pigouvian taxes, 95
fairness, polluter-pays principle, 103–4 fertilisers, agricultural, 104–5 financial crisis (2007/8), 144–6, 148–9 forecasting, challenges of, 35–9, 41–4, see also uncertainty
fossil fuels
contemporary context, 1–2
and net zero, 18–19
physical capital, networks and infrastructure, 59–63 generational differences altruism towards the next generation, 16–18
citizens and their capabilities, 28–31
a constitution for future generations, 197, 207–9, 214–16 limited realistic impartiality towards, 26–8 generational differences (cont.)
the next generation, 15–16, 31–3,
our legacy, 218–27
pure impartiality, 21–4
social capital, 71
system regulation model, 188–90
uncertainty about the future, 37–9
global population, see world population global climate change governments, see also constitutions
EU membership, 211–12
externality and government failure, 98–9 following constitutional rules, 212–14 limiting government discretion and the importance of rules, 209–10
our legacy, 218–27
greenhouse gases, 35–9, see also carbon dioxide; climate change gross domestic product (GDP) discounting and economic growth, 24–5 forecasting and uncertainty, 36
a sustainable economy, 7, 192–3

Hayek, Friedrich von, 47–51, 142, 164 healthcare, system regulation model, 188 Hicks, John, 123, 139
human capital, 63–9
capital maintenance, 79, 208
constitutional principles, 208
enhancement investments, 83
human population, see world population

impartiality principle
citizens and their capabilities, 28–31
distributional argument, 25–6
economic growth argument, 24–5
limited realistic impartiality, 26–8
the next generation, 31–3
the pure impartiality argument, 21–4 time-invariant, 17
inequality, 166–9, see also social justice inflation, 148
inflows, institutional model, 191–4 informational failures, 98–9 infrastructure systems, 59–63, see also system regulation model basic income and national dividends, 169–72
coordination problem, 125–9
foreign ownership, 90–1
national accounts, 86–7
nationalised industries vs. privatisation, 177–8
our legacy, 219
rethinking the provision of public goods, 131 integrated assessment models (IAMs), 42–3 interest rates, 149, 215–16
the intergenerational constitution, 214–16, see also generational differences International Energy Agency (IEA), 36
investments
asset valuation, 87–9
capital maintenance, 74–80
remedial and enhancement, 80–3
sustainable consumption, 141–9
system regulation model, 188–90
Italy, natural capital example, 55–6 job market, see labour market justice, polluter-pays principle, 103–4

Keynesian theory, 84, 138–40
citizens’ debt and liabilities, 174–5 consumption and green growth, 132–4 Modern Monetary Theory (MMT) approach, 149–51 nation state and the world economy, 151–3
our legacy, 220
protectionism, 151–3
sustainable consumption, 153–4 Knightian uncertainty, 40–1, 47–8 knowledge, as part of human capital, 63–9 labour market

classical economics, 135–7
COVID-19 pandemic, 148–9
Keynesian theory, 134, 138–40, 148–9
Labour Standard, 140–1
...and the Consumption Standard, 140–1
...Keynesian theory, 139–40
law, see regulatory structures learning-by-taxing, 106 liberal political theory, 198 licensing, system regulation model, 181–4, 187–8
limited realistic impartiality, 26–8 living standards, see standard of living lobbying
...externalities, 98–9
...public goods, 115
...regulating and prohibiting, 111–13
Locke, John, 198

macroeconomics, 91–2
citizens’ equity, 172–3
classical economics, 135–7
constitutional principles, 214–15
pollution and market failure, 94–9
social justice, 155
Malthus, Thomas, 136
marginal costs, 95–6
...coordination problem, 125–9
...coordination problem in systems and infrastructures, 125–9
...digitalisation and zero marginal costs, 119–21
...distinction from average costs, 117
...market failure, 121–5
...paying for public goods, 129–30
...public goods, 114–19
universal service obligations (USOs), 156–60 zero marginal cost in the sustainable economy, 114–15 market competition, 47–51, 135–7
market failure
...Coase bargaining, 99–101
...externalities, 98–9
...marginal costs/damages, 121–5
...Pigouvian taxes, 97–8
...pollution, 94–9
...public goods, 114–19
...theory of the second best, 96–7
mass extinctions, 34–5
media, and social capital, 72 microeconomics, 94–9
minerals, use of natural capital, 58
Modern Monetary Theory (MMT), 149–51
...the external position, 151–3 monetary policy, 215
monopolies
...coordination problem, 125–9
...externalities, 98–9
...market failure, 121–5
...residual monopoly and contract regulation, 185–8 myopia, 16–18
nation state, Keynesian theory, 151–3 national accounts, 83–5, see also sustainable accounting
...asset valuation, 87–9
...debt as part of, 88, 91–2
...foreign ownership of assets, 90–1
...sustainable consumption, 132–4
...national dividend, 191–4
National Infrastructure Commission, UK, 190–1 nationalised industries
...foreign ownership, 90–1
...vs. privatisation, 131, 177–8
...rethinking the provision of public goods, 131
natural capital
...capital maintenance, 74–80
natural capital (cont.)

natural vs. other capitals, 55–6

for the next generation, 31–2, 207–8

non-renewable and renewable,

5–7, 57–9

other capital dependent upon, 32–3

as primary asset, 56–9

as public good, 118–19

a sustainable economy, 7–14

system regulation model, 179–81

negative interest rates, 149 neo-Ricardian effect, 146–7 neo-Ricardian equivalent theory, 146–7

net zero

constitutional principles, 210–11

cost estimates, 98–9

and fossil fuels, 18–19 networks, infrastructure systems, 59–63

non-renewable natural capital, 5–7, 57–9

nuclear power, 18–20

open societies, 48–9

operational capital maintenance, 77–8

Orwell, George, 164

outflows, institutional model, 191–4 outsourcing net zero, 101

overpopulation, 24

pay-as-you-go principle, 88–9 peat, ban on, 112

pesticides, polluter-pays principle, 104–5 physical capital, 59–63, 208–9

Pigou, Arthur, 95, 100

Pigouvian taxes, 95–8

Austrian approach, 105–6

global agreements, 110–11

planning

Austrian economics and

entrepreneurs, 46–8

system regulation model, 190–1

politics, see also constitutions

EU membership, 211–12

forecasting and uncertainty, 37–9

Keynesian approach, 138–40

from the Labour Standard to the

Consumption Standard, 140–1 limiting government discretion and

the importance of rules, 209–10

open societies, 48–9

our legacy, 218–27

polluter-pays principle, 102–5

the problem with planning, 49–51

polluter-pays principle

in the absence of global enforcement, 109–11

Coase bargaining as alternative,

99–101

in constitutional terms, 205–6 impact on consumption, 9–11, 93–4 justifications for, 102–5

market failure, 94–9

our legacy, 222–3

pollution taxes (Austrian school approach), 105–6

pollution

capital maintenance, 77–8

living beyond our means, 107–9

market failure, 94–9

prices, 113

regulating and prohibiting, 111–13

remedial investments, 81–2

taxes (Austrian economics approach), 105–6

Popper, Karl, 65–7

population, see world population poverty

distributional argument, 25–6

inequality and the problem of the

ultra-rich, 166–9

pure impartiality, 21–4

social insurance, 163–4

social justice, 12

precautionary principle

asymmetric risks, 44–6

Austrian economics and

entrepreneurs, 46–8

in constitutional terms, 205–6

price, incorporating pollution costs,

113, see also Pigouvian taxes price cap regulation, 181–4, 187 privatisation
vs. nationalisation, 131, 177–8
rethinking the provision of public goods, 131
universal service obligations (USOs), 156–60 prohibiting pollution, 111–13 property rights
carbon taxes, 106
Coase bargaining, 99–101
and public goods, 115–16 prosperity, 218, see also the sustainable economy
protectionism, 151–3
Protestantism, 69–70
public goods
coordination problem in systems and infrastructures, 125–9
externalities, 98–9
marginal costs, 117–20, 124–5
market failure, 114–19
paying for, 129–30
rethinking the provision of, 131
universal basic income, 162–6
universal service obligations (USOs), 156–60 public interest, distinction from public goods, 115 quality of life, see standard of living quantitative easing (QE), 149–51, 216
Ramsey, Frank, 21
Rawls, John, 199
regulating pollution, 111–13
regulators
closing down the economic regulators, 190–1 system plan delivery, 184–5
system regulation model, 181–4 regulatory asset bases (RABs), 171, 188–90 regulatory structures
global agreements, 109–11
polluter-pays principle, 111–13
the sustainable economy, 12–13
religion
and capitalism, 69–70
social capital, 72
remedial investments, 80–3 renewable natural capital, 57–9
capital maintenance, 75
contemporary context, 5–7
cost–benefit analysis, 88
as public good, 118–19
research and development (R&D), 208 residual monopoly, 185–8
resilience, 41–4
revolutions, 209–10
rewilding, 57–8 risk, asymmetric, 44–6
risk aversion, 200
Russia, natural capital example, 55–6 Schumpeter, Joseph, 47–8
second best, theory of, 96–7 Smith, Adam, 135–7
social capital, 69–72
capital maintenance, 79–80
constitutional principles, 209
consumption, 29–30
polluter-pays principle, 109
social contract, 198, 217
social justice
basic income and national dividends, 169–72
distributional argument, 25–6 educational attainment and human capital, 63–9 inequality and the problem of the ultra-rich, 166–9 infrastructure, 62–3
pure impartiality, 21–4
the sustainable economy, 11–14, 155–6
universal basic income, 162–6
universal service obligations (USOs), 156–60
social tariffs, 160–2
socialism, universal basic income, 162–6 stakeholders, system regulation model, 183–4 standard of living, see also consumption the Consumption Standard, 153–4
from the Labour Standard to the Consumption Standard, 140–1
living beyond our means, 107–9 progress since 1900, 2–3
sustainable consumption, 83–5, 153–4
state, see governments; nation state Stern, Nick, 23
stewardship concept
citizens’ equity, 172–3
as constitutional principle, 203–5
for the next generation, 201–2 subsidies, sustainable consumption, 160–2 supply and demand
classical economics, 136
investment, 141–9
sustainability, Brundtland Report, 31
sustainable accounting, 7–9, 73–4
asset valuation, 87–9
assets balance sheet, 85–7
capital maintenance, 74–80, 89–91
consumption, 132–4
contrast with existing accounts, 83–5
macroeconomics, 91–2
remedial and enhancement
investments, 80–3
sustainable consumption, 132–4
and the Consumption Standard, 153–4
cross-subsidies, 160–2
investments, 141–9
social justice, 155–6
social tariffs, 160–2
universal basic income, 162–6
the sustainable economy, 3–14
based upon uncertainty, 53–4
natural capital, 7–14
the next generation, 15–16
our legacy, 218–27
radical departure from conventional economics, 33
social justice, 11–14
technical progress, 51–3
zero marginal cost, 114–15
system regulation model, 178–9 closing down the economic
regulators, 190–1
delivery of, 176–8, 184–5 generational links, 188–90 knowing what you have got, 179–81
a new institutional architecture, 194–6
regulating the national dividend and the wealth fund, 191–4
regulators, 181–4
residual monopoly and contract regulation, 185–8
taxation
global agreements, 109–11
inequality and the problem of the
ultra-rich, 166–9
living beyond our means, 107–9 Pigouvian, 95–8, 106
pollution taxes the Austrian way, 105–6
revenue raised by pollution taxes, 97
social justice, 11–12
sustainable economic growth, 192–3 taxpayer accounts, 85–6 technology
asymmetric risks, 44–6
capital maintenance, 77–8
digitalisation and zero marginal costs, 119–21
ideas, knowledge and human capital, 63–9
physical capital, networks and
infrastructure, 59–63
the sustainable economy, 51–3
system regulation model, 179–81
Thatcherite policy, 152–3 time-invariant impartiality principle, 17 trade, protectionism, 151–3 trade unions, 152–3
trickle-down economics, 25–6
Trump, Donald, 198
uncertainty
asymmetric risks, 44–6
Austrian economics and entrepreneurs, 46–8 and decision-making, 39–41
and forecasting, 35–9
the problem with planning, 49–51
in regulatory rules, 112–13
resilience, 41–4
the sustainable economy based upon, 53–4 technical progress and the sustainable economy, 51–3 unknown unknowns, 40–1
universal basic income, 162–6
universal service obligations (USOs), 156–60, 169–72, 176–8 utilitarianism
citizens and their capabilities, 28–31
pure impartiality, 21–4
the sustainable economy, 33
the sustainable economy based upon uncertainty, 53–4 veil of ignorance, 199
vested interests, 115
Victorian era economics, 135–7, 142–3
wages
financial crisis (2007/8), 144–6
Keynesian theory, 134, 144–6
social justice, 12
water regulation, 182, 191 wealth fund, 191–4
wealthy individuals, and inequality, 166–9 world population
classical economics, 136
contemporary context, 1–2
overpopulation, 24
uncertainty about the future, 38
zero marginal cost
digitalisation, 119–1
market failure, 121–5
public goods, 116–18
in the sustainable economy, 114–15